Aldreds are pleased to offer this unique opportunity to acquire a semi-detached barn conversion in an idyllic setting with protected views over unspoilt marshland. The barn has been lovingly and artfully converted. It features an open-plan kitchen with a breathtaking panorama to the front and a secluded courtyard garden to the rear. It boasts a boot room, laundry room, family bathroom, and a spacious inner hallway serving four double bedrooms (two of which have ensembles). Surfaces and finishes are stylish and unfussy throughout. The interior has limestone floors, exposed wooden doors, hardwearing carpets, and a shaker-style kitchen. The outside is clad in weathered black timber, inspired by the look of the local fishermen's huts built on the edges of the nearby beaches. The house is surrounded by thoughtfully landscaped gardens on three sides (one south facing), paved and decked areas from which to enjoy the views of the countryside, and a large gravelled area for parking.

The conversion has been undertaken with an eye to the latest ecological and environmental building practices whilst also making clever use of the existing structure. Insulation factors are high and it has an air source heat pump with underfloor heating throughout. Metal windows and bifold doors are colour-matched with the exterior cladding, allowing a generous light to flood the internal spaces. This is a rare opportunity to acquire a stylish property in a truly rural environment within easy reach of some of Norfolk's best beaches, pubs, schools, villages and towns. Viewing is essential.

Location

Sitting on the boundary of the Norfolk Broads National Park, Wymers Barn is surrounded by a superb network of footpaths that allow you to take in the beauty of the adjacent marshes whilst rarely venturing onto a paved road. Mautby itself is a tranquil village of around 100 people, once home to the Pastons, a powerful medieval family with an important literary legacy. The roads are quiet and there are very limited opportunities for further development. The house is around 10 minutes from Great Yarmouth, a town with a long and fascinating relationship to the sea, most recently as a service hub to the booming offshore wind industry. Some of Norfolk's very best remote beaches (e.g. Horsey, Winterton) are 10-15 minutes away, and in around 25 minutes you can be in Norwich, an attractive county town with a bustling cultural scene. Local trains from Yarmouth and Acle connect with regular commuter services to London Liverpool Street from Norwich (1 hr 50). A few minutes walk down a private road is a picturesque windmill on the river Bure, part of the enchanting network of waterways known as the Norfolk Broads. The local state schools are highly regarded and there are easy transport links to a strong offering of private schools in Norwich.

Directions

Leave Norwich on the A47. Once at Acle, continue straight over onto the A1064, through the villages of Fleggburgh and Filby, then turn right at the brow of the hill onto Hall Road. Continue around the right and left hand bends for approximately a mile. The entrance to Wymers Barn can be found on the left just past where the road forks abruptly to the right.
