Agent's Notes

An application for the Grant of Probate is scheduled to be submitted on the 12th of April 2024. Interested parties should be aware that contracts cannot be exchanged until Probate has been granted and this could be several months.

The buyer of The Laurels will be offered the option to purchase the adjoining orchard with two buildings in poor condition. The orchard will be sold subject to an Overage Agreement which will stipulate that in the event of planning permission being granted on the orchard for a period of 25 years from the date of sale, 50% of the uplift in value from orchard land to development land will become payable to the current seller or their successors.
