This is a property in a superb position coming with the added benefit of having NO UPWARD CHAIN. With plenty of space for all the family this property does require some updating however, sitting in this location it really does boast huge potential! The accommodation is vast and comprises an entrance porch, through entrance hall, large dining room opening through to a living room, a kitchen, utility room, ground floor wet room and storeroom/study. There is also a garage store. On the first floor are three large double bedrooms, a nursery/study and a family bathroom whilst there is also a converted loft room. Outside is a generous plot with a large block paved driveway with lawn frontage and a generous private rear garden laid mainly to lawn with a large useful shed and both paved and raised timber deck seating areas. This property thoroughly deserves a closer inspection - so don't miss out and book in your viewing today.
