The bungalow was extended in 2020 to create a most spacious and comfortable lounge/dining room with full width sliding patio doors providing access to a decking area and the delightful westerly facing rear garden. The tastefully fitted kitchen consists of matching range of white gloss units and ample work surfaces, as well as integrated appliances to include an electric oven, ceramic electric hob with extractor above, fridge/freezer, dishwasher and washing machine. From the kitchen is access to an inner hall, which has further fitted units and has access into the lounge/dining room and a side covered store/utility, which also has various fitted cupboards. The bedrooms are of double size with fitted wardrobes to bedrooms one and three. Bedroom two features a nicely tiled en suite shower room making this an ideal guest room. The good size bathroom has a modern white suite consisting of a deep oval bath, a separate shower cubicle and is also nicely tiled. In the hallway is a built-in cloaks cupboard and there is access via a wooden fold-down ladder to a delightful attic room area having two Velux windows. There are also two loft storage areas, which both have light and are insulated and mostly boarded. From the rear loft storage area is a Velux window opening up to a roof terrace to take full advantage of the stunning views.
