Situation Cherhill

Cherhill is situated on the A4 between Calne and Marlborough. It is best known for the 17th century White Horse and Obelisk situated on the Cherhill Downs and is owned by the National Trust. The area is popular with walkers who enjoy the beautiful countryside and farmland which surrounds this thriving village. The eclectic mix of property available in the village comprises 14th Century thatched cottages, contemporary new build and individual self built residences. This mix of housing with a church, village pub, primary school and village hall delivers a strong community feeling and wonderful place to live. Calne provides a comprehensive range of amenities including a choice of shops and supermarkets, sports centre with indoor swimming pool, public library, churches and schooling for all age groups. Calne is an expanding north Wiltshire town within easy travelling distance of nearby larger centers which include Chippenham (6 miles) and Swindon (18 miles). Junctions 16 and 17 of the M4 Motorway are both easily accessible from the town, whilst a mainline railway station at Chippenham provides regular services to London Paddington.
