- Detached bungalow
- Large stone barn
- Rural location
- Renovation project
- Stunning views
- approx. 3.6 acres croft land

A traditional stone croft house with attached barn, set on approximately 3.6 acres of croft land, enjoying stunning views over Loch Sarclet and out to sea.

The property is currently uninhabitable and requires extensive renovation, offering an exciting opportunity for those seeking a restoration project in a picturesque setting. Services have previously been connected, including electricity, water and telephone, and the site also benefits from a septic tank.

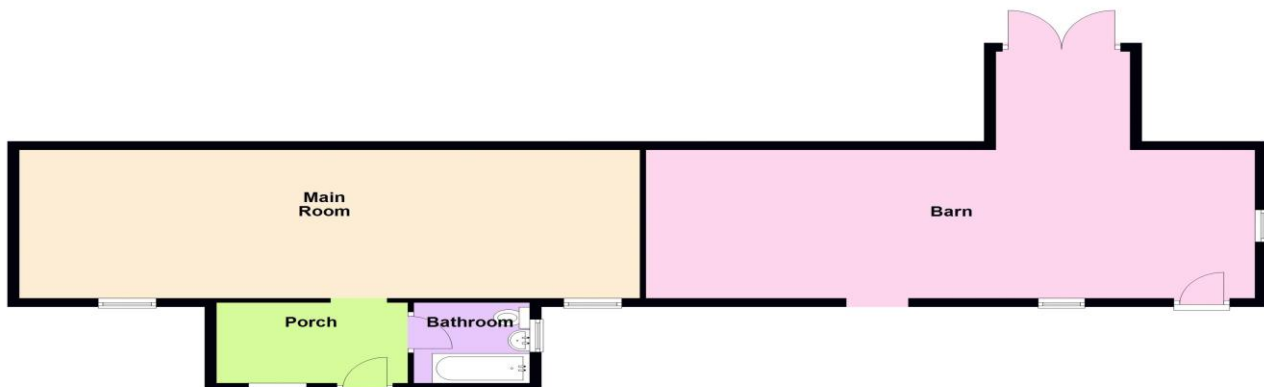

Please note: due to its current condition and its status as crofted land, the property is not mortgageable.
