Newly refurbished one-bedroom apartment in the sought-after West End of Glasgow, offering spacious and comfortable living in an excellent location.

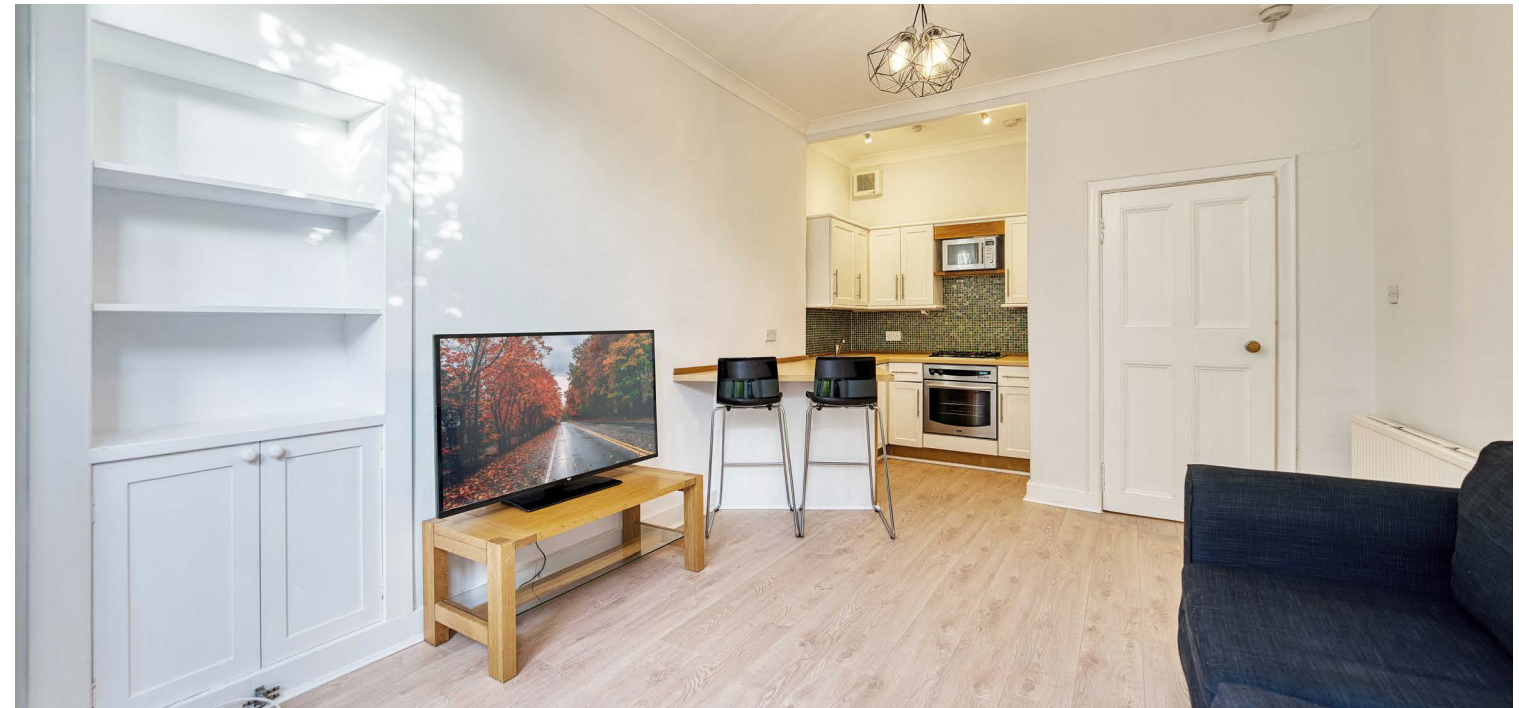

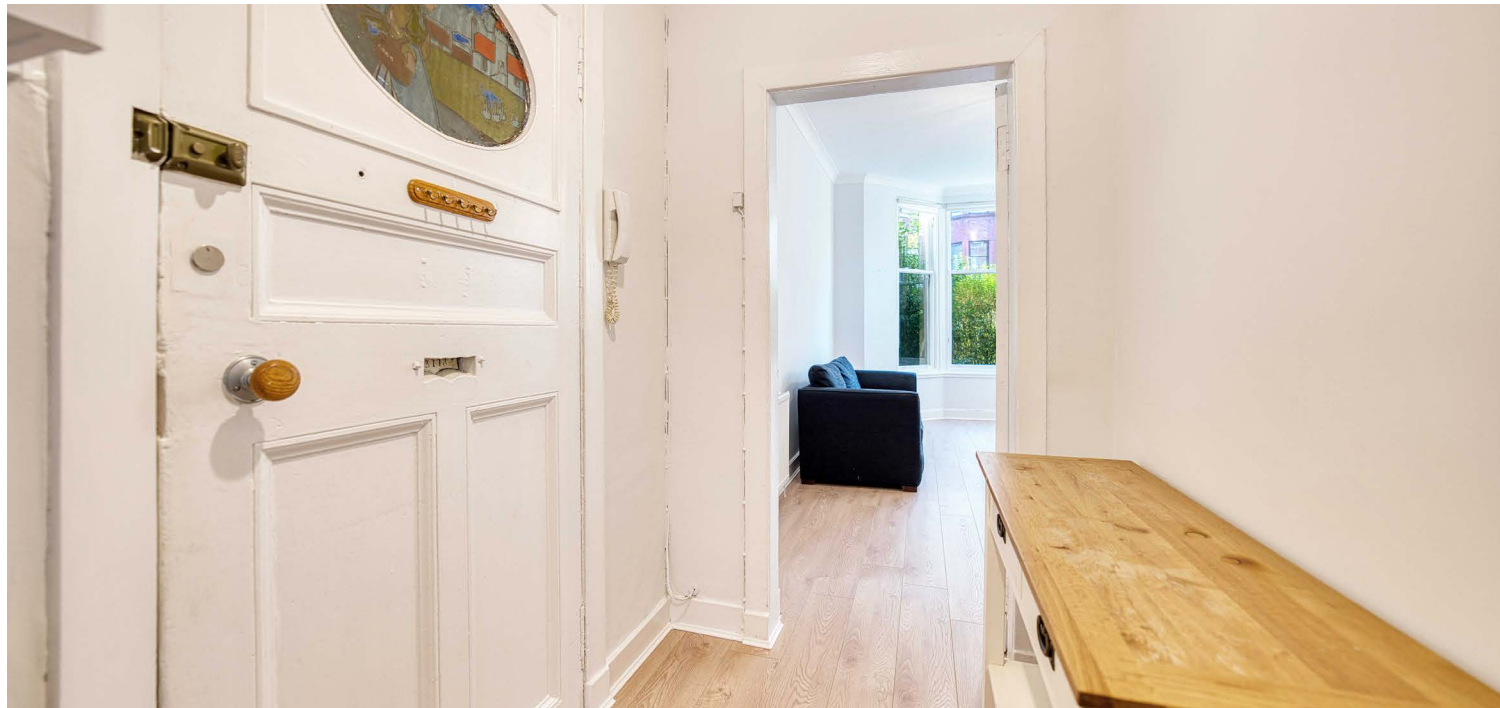

A well-presented one-bedroom apartment in the sought-after West End of Glasgow, offering spacious and comfortable living in an excellent location.

The lounge is bright and well-sized, benefiting from plenty of natural light thanks to the large traditional bay window, furnished with a two-seater sofa and television and finished with newly fitted laminate flooring.

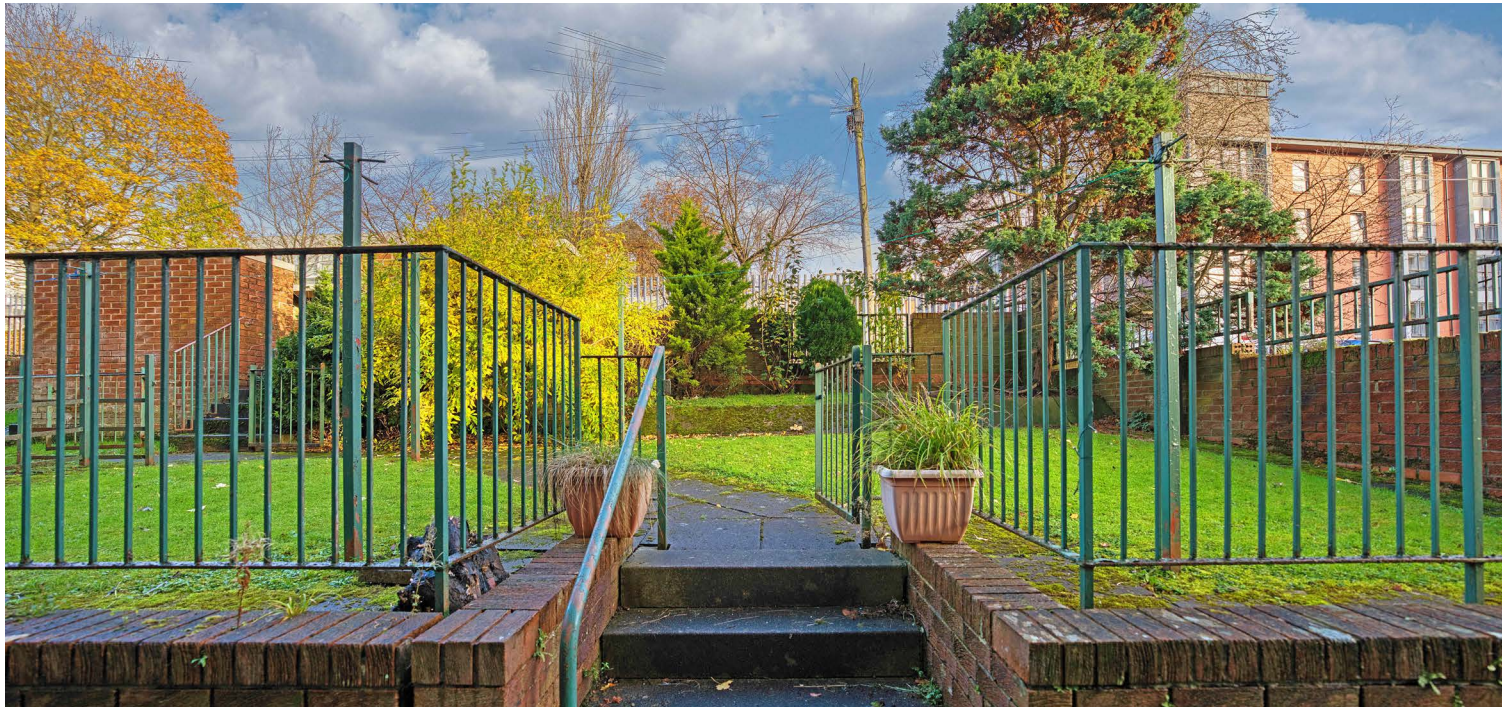

The kitchen is fitted with essential appliances, including microwave, undercounter fridge, built in electric oven. a four-ring gas hob.

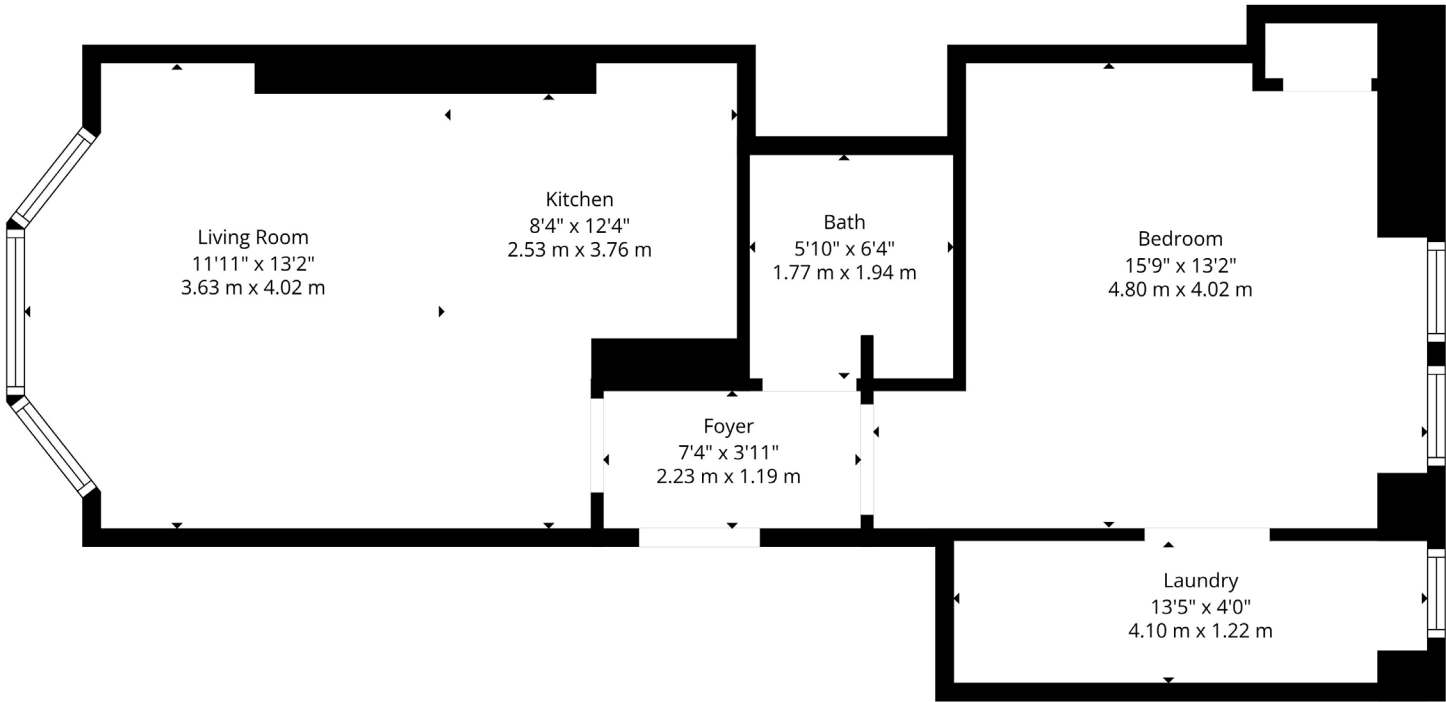

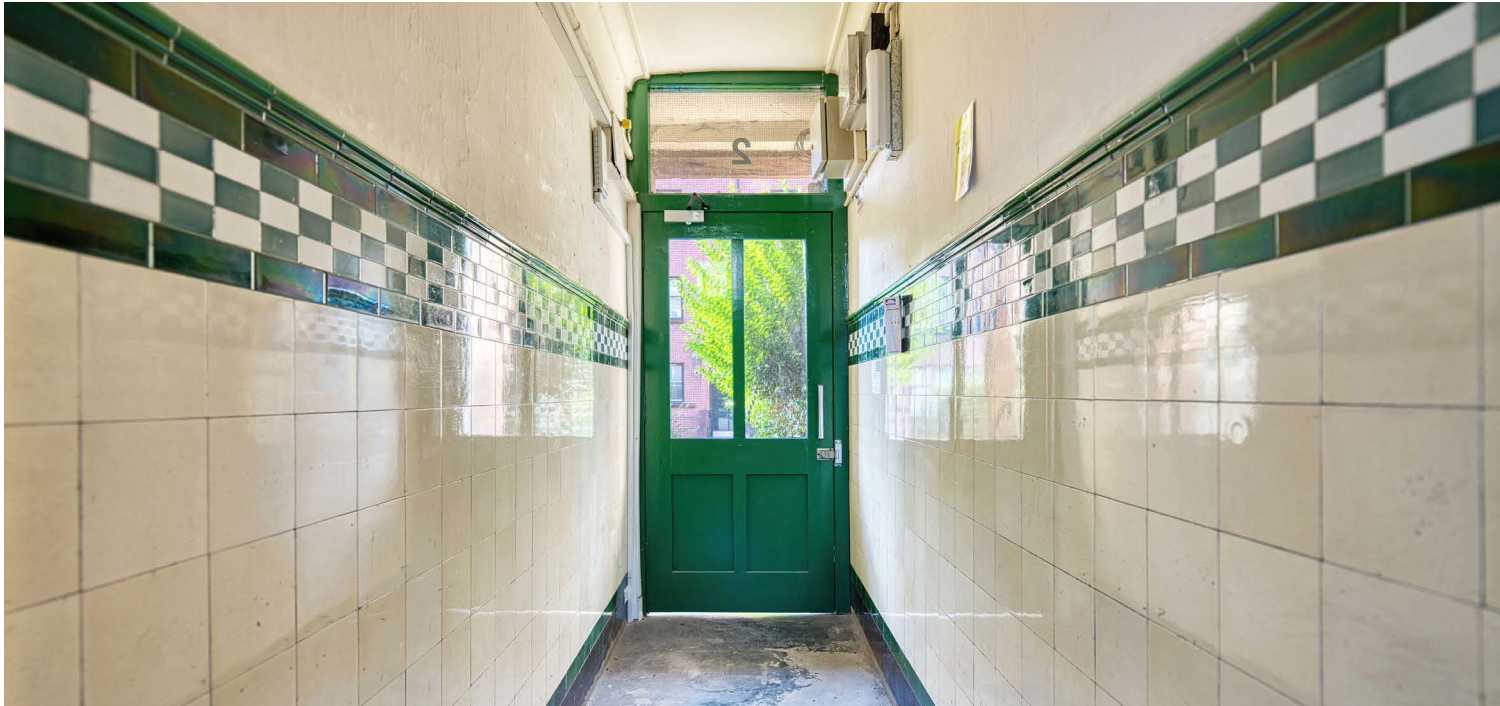

The bedroom is a well-proportioned double with excellent natural light throughout. Just off the room is a useful nook currently set up for a dryer, though it could easily be reconfigured to create a compact study space if preferred.

The bathroom features a WC, wash hand basin, vanity and a good sized shower with an electric shower rain shower.

Nestled in Glasgow's vibrant West End, Thornwood is a charming and highly desirable neighbourhood that perfectly blends period character with modern convenience. Lined with beautiful red sandstone tenements and leafy streets, the area offers a welcoming community atmosphere just moments from the lively cafés, bars and independent shops along Dumbarton Road.

Excellent transport links make commuting effortless, with Partick station providing rail, subway and bus connections, while the nearby Clydeside Expressway and Clyde Tunnel offer quick routes across the city.
