A well-presented unfurnished one-bedroom apartment in the sought-after West End of Glasgow, offering spacious and comfortable living in an excellent location.

The lounge is bright and well-sized, benefiting from plenty of natural light thanks to the large traditional bay window also benefiting from built in storage.

The separate generous sized kitchen offers plenty of cupboard space and includes an integrated electric oven, a four ringed gas hob, washing machine and undercounter fridge.

The bedroom is a well-proportioned double again offering plenty of natural light. The bedroom also offers a built-in storage space.

The traditional tenement galley style bathroom features a WC, wash hand basin, vanity and bath with over head shower.

The property also benefits from double glazing and gas central heating throughout.

Nestled in Glasgow's vibrant West End, Thornwood is a charming and highly desirable neighbourhood that perfectly blends period character with modern convenience. Lined with beautiful red sandstone tenements and leafy streets, the area offers a welcoming community atmosphere just moments from the lively cafés, bars and independent shops along Dumbarton Road.

Excellent transport links make commuting effortless, with Partick station providing rail, subway and bus connections, while the nearby Clydeside Expressway and Clyde Tunnel offer quick routes across the city.
