

The Yew Tree

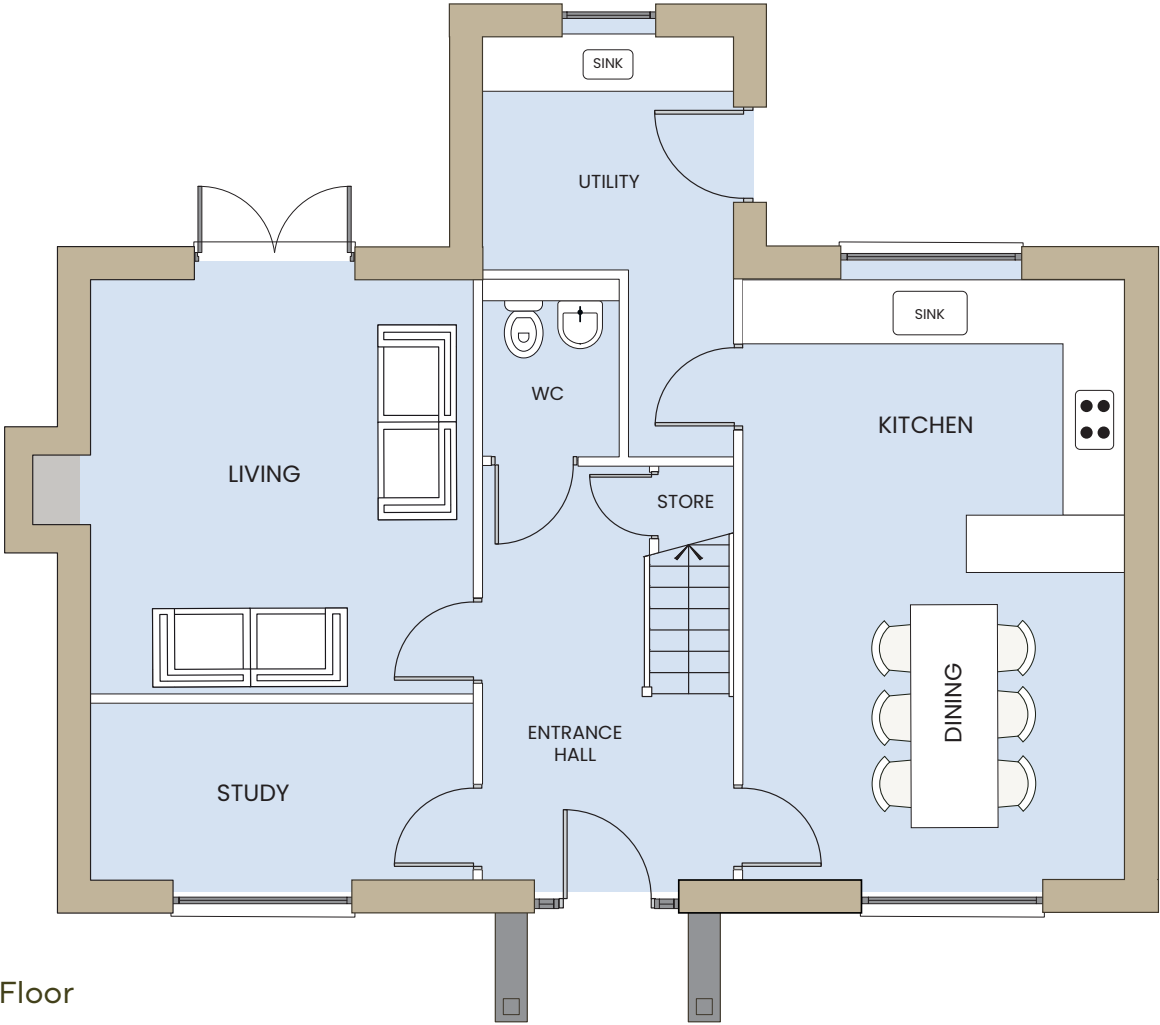

Distinctive and full of character, The Yew Tree is the only brick-built home in the exclusive Whitehouse Farm development - a standout property designed for those seeking charm, space, and countryside serenity.

This impressive four-bedroom detached home has a detached double garage to the rear. Thoughtfully positioned to take full advantage of its elevated setting, The Yew Tree offers sweeping views of the rolling countryside, creating a sense of rural escape while maintaining modern convenience.

Inside, generous living spaces and carefully considered finishes provide the perfect canvas for contemporary family life. Whether you're entertaining or relaxing, every room is designed with comfort and style in mind.
