

The Aldin

This traditional countryside-style property blends timeless character with contemporary comfort.

Step into a generous kitchen and dining area - perfect for family meals and entertaining - complete with French doors that open directly onto the garden, bringing the outdoors in.

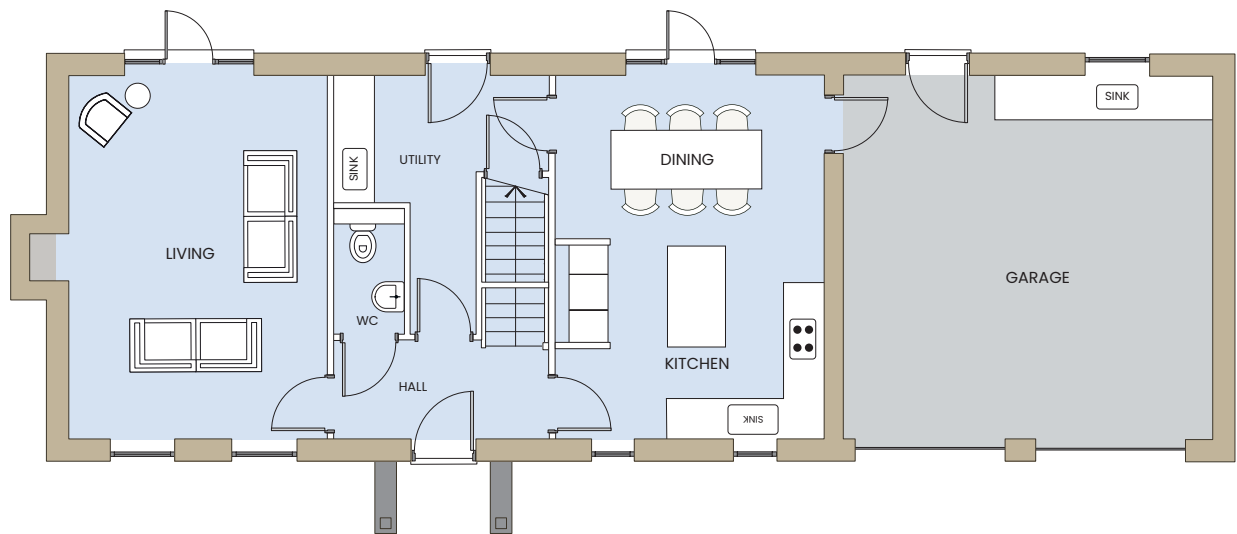

A separate, thoughtfully designed living room offers a peaceful retreat for relaxing evenings.

Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms provide ample space for the whole family, while the master suite delivers comfort and privacy. The home also boasts a double garage, ideal for storage or additional parking.

The Aldin is perfect for modern family life in a charming rural setting.
