Offered chain free and ready to move into, this ground floor apartment offers almost 730sq ft of bright and airy, well laid out living space.

The communal hallway has a secure intercom entry system and there is an allocated parking space plus a number of shared visitor spaces nearby. The large open plan kitchen / dining / living room feels very sociable, with clearly defined spaces to relax at the end of the day or to socialise with family and friends. There are integrated appliances in the kitchen area and being on a corner plot, the room has a dual aspect, looking out to both the front and the side of the building. Both bedrooms are doubles, the larger featuring an ensuite with oversized walk in shower. There is a lovely, modern bathroom for guests.

Commuters will appreciate that there are two mainline stations within a mile of the property, with direct routes to London and Gatwick. Horsham's bustling town centre is just under two miles away, offering a wide range of shops, bars and restaurants. There are cinemas, gyms, schools and all local services within easy reach.
