INTRODUCTION

Traboyack is an exceptional residential smallholding which has been vastly improved within the current ownership, not only has the house been completely sympathetically refurbished to an extremely high standard, including new double glazing, modern cast iron style radiators in parts of the accommodation. The land, outbuildings, garden grounds, etc. have also been immensely improved. The whole property is in walk-in condition and presents the perfect rural lifestyle which many are seeking at this time.

Traboyack is approached by its own well-maintained single-track road where through a gated driveway, there is ample parking for several vehicles and your first glimpse of the wonderful, elevated views across the valley. The farmhouse is set over two floors offering beautifully presented and spacious four-bedroom family accommodation. It is obvious from the outset that the current owners have been sympathetic with the modernisation undertaken and the attention to detail being second to none. To the rear of the farmhouse areas have been set aside to enjoy the peaceful surroundings with a lovely patio providing the perfect space for alfresco dining or family and social entertaining, along with a neat area of lawn.

A feature of the property is the traditional courtyard buildings, which benefit from 16 stables, a workshop, a restroom, dry storage, etc. There is a hardstanding yard providing further storage space along with some smaller animal shelters, one of which is home to the owners pigmy goats. In addition, and to compliment this fabulous smallholding, there is about 17 acres of grazing land fenced into manageable paddocks. The whole property has huge potential for any smallscale agricultural / equestrian or tourism enterprises.

Traboyack is within easy reach of Girvan, Ayr and Newton Stewart, which provide all essential services. The village of Barr has a local shop and a primary school and is located about 2 miles distant.

This area of Southwest Scotland enjoys one of the most varied and picturesque landscapes within Scotland, ranging from the moorland of the Southern Upland Hills to the bays and sandy beaches of the distinctive coastline. This is a rural county where agriculture and tourism thrive to form the backbone of the local economy. The area has been relatively unscathed by modern industry.

The region is well-known for the quality and variety of both field sports and leisure activities with the outdoor and sporting enthusiast extremely well-catered for as there exist the ability to take both shooting and fishing locally. Given the diverse landscape along with the proximity to the coast and local lochs, the area offers unique walks, sailing, cycling and for the golfer there is an abundance of local courses. The area is distinctly rural in character with agriculture and tourism forming the backbone of the local economy. The region is noted for its fertile and productive grassland.

SERVICES

Water	Drainage	Electricity	Heating	Council Tax	EPC
Private	Septic Tank	Mains	Oil Fired / Multifuel Stove	F	E 51

It should be noted that the private water supply comes from a spring and feeds into a 3,000 litre underground tank, this is then fed through a particle filter and then through a UV filter contained within the utility room.

THE GARDEN GROUNDS

Within the current ownership, the garden grounds at Traboyack have been greatly improved incorporating a lovely patio, perfect for alfresco dining and family and social entertaining along with a neat area of lawn. The location is such that wonderful views can be enjoyed on a daily basis, along with a plethora of native wildlife.

TRADITIONAL COURTYARD STEADING

Situated adjacent to the house are a range of really well-maintained traditional farm buildings configured in a classic courtyard shape. The buildings currently house a range of stables comprising of traditional loose boxes as well as freestanding stables. There is also a tack room, workshop and two areas for fodder storage as well as a rest room with adjoining toilet and hot waters supply. The courtyard is concreted and to the rear is situated a full-size drained and surfaced and fenced ménage (60mx20m).

Although very useful in their current form, these steading buildings could well have some development potential for change of use, however, any interested party wishing to pursue this would need to make their own enquiries with the regional council.

AGRICULTURAL LAND.

Traboyack extends in total to about 19.02 acres (7.7 hectares) to include the areas occupied by the farmhouse, farm steading, yards, etc. The grazing land is contained within clearly defined field enclosures. At present the land is all down to grass for grazing. The land at Traboyack is mainly classified within yield classes 4 to 5 of the Macaulay Land Capability Scale as produced by the James Hutton Institute.

WARRANTY CLAUSE

Whilst the central heating system and the services are believed to be in good working order, no warranty is granted or to be implied and the purchaser(s) will be held to have satisfied themselves in that regard.

HOME REPORT

It should be noted that the property is an agricultural holding, which benefits from an agricultural holding number and therefore there is no requirement for the sellers to provide a Home Report, as it is classed as mixed use. For the avoidance of doubt the property is being sold as a whole.

MATTERS OF TITLE

The subjects are sold under the conditions in the title and any existing burdens (rights of way, rights of access, servitudes etc. whether public or private, and whether constituted in the title deeds or not). The purchaser(s) will be held to have satisfied themselves as to the nature of such burdens and are advised to contact the vendors' solicitors, Mr David Hall, Hall Baird Solicitors for a definitive list of burdens subject to which the property is sold
