INTRODUCTION

Drumraik Park is a traditional countryside cottage set in an idyllic rural location. It enjoys an elevated position with far-reaching views over the surrounding landscape and has no immediate neighbours. The property offers the perfect blank canvas for creating a charming family home.

This property comprises three bedrooms, a kitchen, an open plan dining/ living room and an upstairs office/snug area. The property would benefit from some cosmetic upgrading throughout.

The nearest village is Creetown which offers a range of local amenities including a village shop with outreach post office, primary school, health centre with dispensary, bowling club, locally renowned 24hr fuel station, and both tennis and football clubs. A wider selection of shops, schools, and services can be found in Newton Stewart and Gatehouse of Fleet. Creetown is a former fishing village that was founded in the 18th century. It formed one end of a ferry route that took pilgrims across the River Cree estuary to the shrine of St Ninian at Whithorn. Creetown is home to the award-winning Gem Rock Museum with its collection of gemstones, crystals, minerals, rocks and fossils.

This area of southwest Scotland is renowned for its spectacular coastline, offering a wealth of opportunities for outdoor enthusiasts, including scenic walks, coarse and sea fishing, shooting, sailing, coastal rowing and cycling. There are numerous beaches and sandy coves within easy reach of the property, along with several local golf courses.

Communications to the area are much improved with the A75 trunk road providing quick access from the South via the M6 & M74. The ferry links to Northern Ireland run from Cairnryan which is 35 miles away, and there are international airports in Glasgow (91 miles) and Edinburgh (125 miles). There is a mainline railway station at Stranraer offering services to Ayr, Troon, Kilmarnock, Prestwick Airport & Glasgow.
