Situated on the border of Loddon & Chedgrave, the property is situated within walking distance to local shops and amenities. There is an active community with numerous activities to suit all age groups, along with a vibrant village pub. A short walk and you reach the river network, whilst Loddon is very close and provides schooling, shops, post office, doctors surgery, library, a community gym, public houses, two churches, dentist and further access to the Broads network.

SETTING THE SCENE

Occupying a tree lined setting, the property fronts the Langley Road, with a door off the main path, and a separate gated side access. Owned and maintained by the property, the neighbouring property does have access rights over the side entrance, which has been maintained as a pretty cottage style garden, with a gate to the bisected rear garden.

THE GRAND TOUR

Utilising the rear access, a uPVC double glazed door takes you into a utility room, with an attractive tiled floor, space for appliances or general storage. A glazed roof and window to rear ensures great natural light into the adjacent kitchen. Finished in a country style, a solid wood range of base level units can be found, with an inset ceramic butler sink, wall mounted storage, and space for general white goods. Tiled effect flooring runs underfoot, with an opening to the utility room, built-in storage cupboard, and a door to the family bathroom. Modernised and fully tiled, the bathroom offers a three piece suite, with a window to side, and shower over the bath. Back to the dining room, this surprisingly spacious room offers ample space for a table and general furniture, with a feature ornate glazed latch and brace door taking you into the sitting room. With your eyes firmly set on the brick built inglenook fireplace, a cast iron wood burner is installed, with a range of bespoke built storage. A window and door faces to front, with Norfolk winding stairs tucked away behind a door in the corner. The study/bedroom leads off, again with storage and a window to front, with various uses depending on a new buyers needs. Upstairs, the two bedrooms are interlinked, with a cupboard built-in to the larger.

AGENTS NOTES

The property offers a bisected rear garden, with neighbouring properties having access. A covenant exists for a right of way for the neighbouring property on the other sides having side access also. A flying freehold exists between this property and the adjoining property.

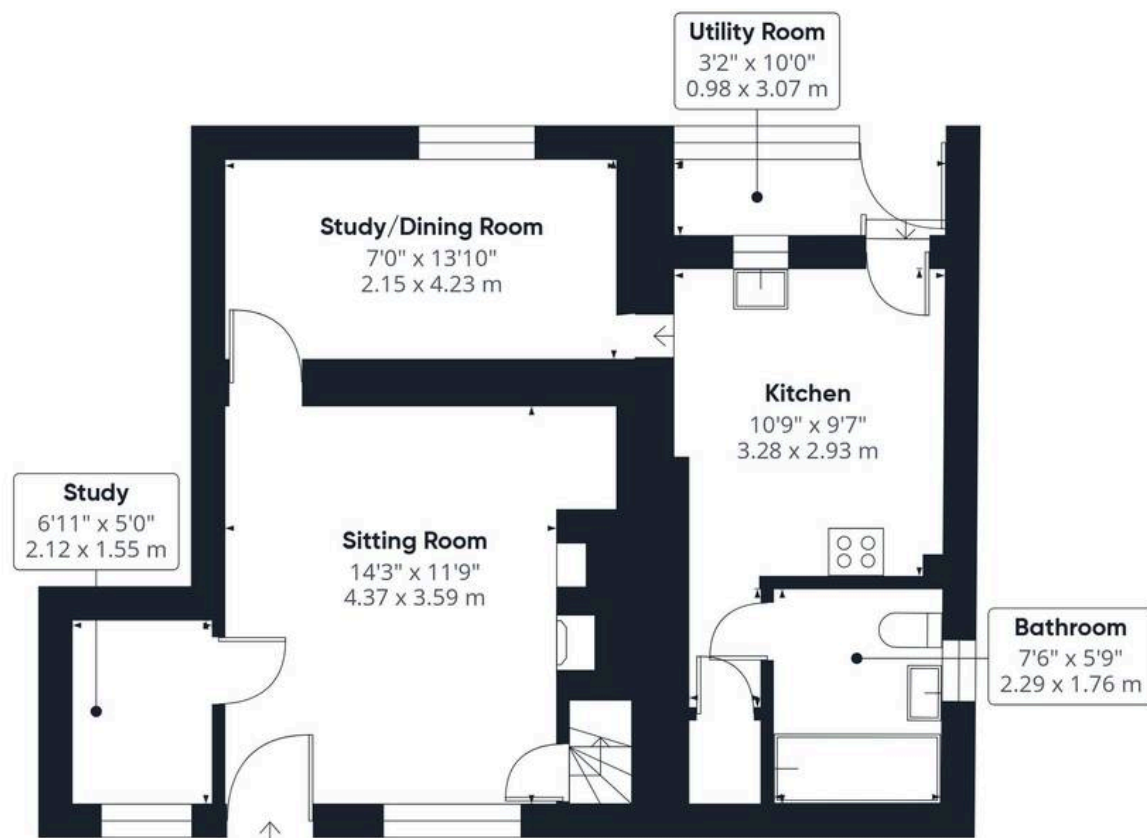

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

The bisected rear garden offers a shared footpath, and then access to the main private garden - a very generous and private, much loved space, which offers grass, planting and various seating areas. A useful timber shed offers storage, along with a brick built outside W.C. A variety of trees and a path can be found, leading down the garden, which is both private and secluded, where a working garden and shepherds hut style outbuilding can be found.- great for outside entertaining.
