Norton Subcourse is a small rural village located South East of Norwich within close proximity to the larger village of Loddon and Market Town of Beccles. Surrounded by open countryside and spectacular walks all year round, the neighbouring village of Thurlton boasts a local shop, public house and primary schooling.

SETTING THE SCENE

Approached via a two mile long unmade track, a crossing over the Reedham Trainline is required, with gates at either side. Once at the property, a gated access to the front garden can be found, with a large lawned frontage, with various caravans in situ.

THE GRAND TOUR

Stepping inside you head straight into the main kitchen creating the hub of the home, with a feature fireplace to one side and an extensive array of built-in storage cupboards. Space is provided for general white goods including a fridge, freezer, gas cooker and washing machine, with far reaching views across the front garden. The inner hallway provides access to the rear hall and stairs to the first floor landing, whilst an opening leads to the main sitting room with dual aspect windows to front and side. Fitted carpet runs underfoot, whilst a useful lean to offers an extension to the living space during the summer months with a side access door from the sitting room. The rear hall includes a door to the rear garden with ample space for coats and shoes, with doors to the remaining ground floor accommodation. A study or ground floor bedroom sits to the rear, with windows to side and rear, with fitted carpet underfoot. A low level W.C is tucked within the cloakroom with half tiled walls. The family bathroom offers a two piece suite, with tiled splash-backs, side facing window and built-in storage cupboard.

Heading upstairs, the carpeted landing includes a built-in airing cupboard and window facing to rear, with doors leading to the four bedrooms. The largest bedroom sits to the side with three windows offering dual aspect views across the river and marshland, with the second bedroom having been divided with a partition wall to create two smaller rooms, with potential to open the space back into one enjoying the far reaching views beyond. The two smaller bedrooms both enjoy fantastic views with one including fitted carpet and the other wood effect flooring, with a built-in storage cupboard.

AGENTS NOTES

There is no heating in the property. The property uses a bore hole for a water supply, with a septic tank for drainage. Access is via a 2 mile long track which includes a rail crossing, with twin gates for access.

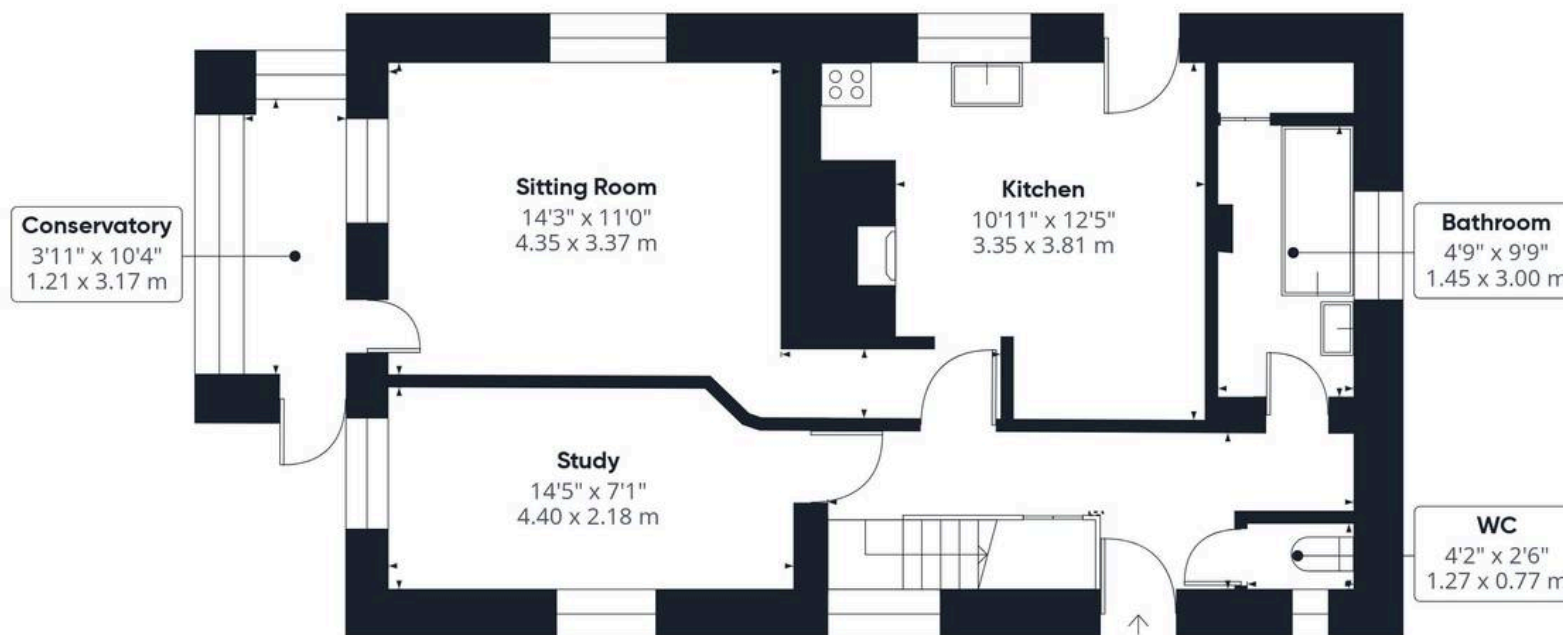

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

The property occupies a plot in the region of 6 acres (stms), with various sections of formal gardens, paddock and river frontage. Having not been farmed during our vendors tenure, most of the land runs across the length of the river. The frontage is grass and includes various caravans, whilst the rear garden is a more formal entertaining space with various outbuildings for storage, but requiring remedial works. With a large reed-bed, boat dyke and sections to moor a boat, the property offers a wealth of potential.
