A charming and deceptively spacious Victorian home, full of period features including sash windows, tall ceilings, original fireplaces, and tiled flooring.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, living room with open fireplace, dining room with multifuel stove, kitchen, and cellar. On the first floor is a stunning bathroom with vaulted ceiling, claw foot bath, shower, high flush WC, and fireplace. There are two first floor bedrooms—one spacious master with built-in cupboards and fireplace, and a third bedroom with similar period features.

The second floor offers a further generous double bedroom with two Velux roof lights and built-in storage.

Outside, there is a traditional courtyard garden to the front. To the rear, stone lead from a small courtyard to a long garden with
