2 Bedroom Apartment located in Wakefield

Ideally located in the heart of St. John's Square—right in central Wakefield—this spacious second-floor apartment combines modern comfort with the charm of its historic surroundings. The large living room, framed by floor-to-ceiling windows, is bathed in natural light and offers picturesque views across the square.

With two generously sized bedrooms and a spacious bathroom, the apartment provides ample room for comfortable living. Recently decorated, unfurnished, and pet-friendly, it features efficient gas central heating and access to high-speed internet. The kitchen is fully equipped for contemporary living, including a fitted fridge-freezer, oven and hob, and washing machine.

St. John's Square benefits from excellent transport links. Wakefield Westgate train station and the city centre are just a short walk away, offering convenient access to both local and national rail services.

For those travelling by car, on-street permit parking is available. The location also provides quick access to major road networks including the M1 and M62, making travel across the region and beyond refreshingly straightforward.
