Barley Mow Cottage

This lovely end of terrace listed cottage dates from the mid 17th century and has an attractive rendered facade under a clay tile roof. The interior is of equal quality and provides surprisingly spacious rooms all of which have generous ceiling heights. There are two reception rooms both with fireplaces and the majority of the principle rooms also display exposed wall timbers and other period features. A single storey extension provides a modern kitchen and bathroom and there is a south-facing walled patio garden with pedestrian access to the rear.

Outside

The stone paved patio garden is south facing and enclosed by brick walls. A rear gate provides pedestrian access from the rear.

Watlington

Watlington is a beautiful historic market town with easy access for commuters to London and Oxford via the Oxford tube at Lewknor, local train links and the M40. There is a vibrant and creative community, independent and artisan shops. Along with three excellent pubs and local restaurants, there is a first-class butcher and delicatessen, the Orange Bakery selling delicious bread and baked goodies every Friday and Saturday, and The Undercroft Market, with locally sourced fruit, vegetables, flowers and plants. Art Week comes to Watlington for the sixth year in May 2025 with open studios and pop-up exhibitions in many of the local shops and businesses. For sporting enthusiasts, the town has a range of sports facilities that embrace football and cricket as well as tennis, squash and bowls. The Chiltern Hills rise above the town and offer some of the finest landscapes in south-east England. With wonderful walks on the doorstep and The Icknield Way (Ridgeway National Trail) passing close to the town, there is much on offer for outdoor enthusiasts, cyclists and walkers.
