Benson

Benson is an attractive village on the Thames, located some three miles north east of Wallingford. The original settlement can be traced back to a Saxon manor. From the 17th century onwards the village prospered as a coaching stop, being located on the important London to Oxford road. Benson has an excellent Primary school and pre-school along with crèche facilities and a holiday club for children of all ages. There are good local shops in the village and, of course, the amenities of Wallingford and the Thames are close by.
