DISCOVER MARLOW

Set on the banks of the River Thames, Marlow is one of Buckinghamshire's most distinguished towns, offering an exceptional quality of life. Its vibrant High Street is home to acclaimed restaurants, stylish boutiques, and welcoming cafés, while the surrounding countryside and riverside walks provide space to unwind in natural beauty.

Excellent schools and swift connections to London and Oxford make Marlow ideal for modern living, combining convenience with an enduring sense of style. With its elegant architecture, thriving community, and relaxed sophistication, Marlow remains a truly desirable place to call home.

Two newly built homes set within a private, gated plot in Marlow, offering a rare combination of modern design, quality craftsmanship and a peaceful setting close to the town centre.

LIVING AND DINING

Designed with modern living in mind, the living and dining spaces offers both sophistication and comfort. Large windows flood the room with natural light, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere that's perfect for entertaining or relaxing in style.

At the heart of the home lies a beautifully crafted kitchen by Hampton Kitchens, renowned for their handcrafted quality and timeless design. Featuring top-of-the-range appliances and meticulous attention to detail, these spaces blend function with flawless finish—making everyday living effortlessly refined.

REST & RELAXATION

Spacious and serene, the bedrooms offer the ideal setting to unwind. A soothing palette of natural tones enhances the sense of calm, while refined finishes deliver an effortless balance of style and comfort.

Plot 1 offers four beautifully appointed bedrooms and two stylish bathrooms, thoughtfully designed for modern family living.

Plot 2 features four generous bedrooms and three luxurious bathrooms, including two en-suites, providing the perfect blend of space, comfort, and sophistication.
