Banters Lane, Great Leighs,
Chelmsford

Tucked away in the idyllic village of Great Leighs, Chelmsford, this enchanting period cottage on Banters Lane offers the perfect blend of historic charm and contemporary comfort, nestled just under an acre of beautiful grounds. From the moment you pass through the double private gates and wind your way down the long gravel driveway, this property offers a rare sense of privacy and timeless countryside living.

Step inside to discover a spacious and character-filled interior, where exposed beams, original brickwork, and a mix of wood, tiled, and soft carpet flooring create a warm, welcoming ambiance. The heart of the home is a large open-plan kitchen and dining area, ideal for modern family living and entertaining. The kitchen flows seamlessly into a generous dining space and onwards into a cozy reception room complete with an impressive inglenook fireplace. French patio doors lead directly out to the tranquil rear garden and sun-drenched patio area, offering a delightful indoor-outdoor lifestyle. The ground floor is also home to one of the three bedrooms and a separate shower room—ideal for guests or single-level living.

Upstairs, the period features continue to shine. The landing branches off to two further bedrooms and a stunning family bathroom, boasting a tiered freestanding roll-top bath, perfect for long soaks. One of the bedrooms is accessible through a charming character doorway, adding a unique touch that simply must be seen in person.

Surrounding the home, the gardens are a haven of tranquillity, thoughtfully landscaped to allow enjoyment of the sun throughout the day. Whether you wish to relax on the patio, cultivate a vegetable patch, or simply appreciate your privacy of your personal space that is in touch with the beauty of the natural surroundings, the outdoor space offers flexibility and charm in equal measure.
