MODERN LIVING IN A HISTORIC MARKET TOWN.

Built on the River Test, this Hampshire market town has great appeal. Medieval streets. Thriving markets. Delicious eateries. Historic buildings. Near to both coast and countryside. Romsey really is a delightful place to call home.

FIND YOUR HAPPY PLACE IN ROMSEY.

Close to the heart of thriving Romsey town centre, you'll find Glebe Court, named in the local tradition of using medieval references — in this case 'glebe', which means 'cultivated land'. Designed with the over 60s in mind, the development is built to high standards and is an ideal place to live life well.

LIVE LIFE YOUR WAY.

Whatever you love doing in life, Romsey will spoil you for choice and you'll find Glebe Court is ideally placed to help you get the most out of this historic market town and surrounding area.

Located in a leafy suburb near to the town centre, you'll find everything you need is close by. Directly next door is a Co-op, so picking up daily essentials or the weekly shop couldn't be easier.

Take a stroll along the canal or hop on a bus that stops outside the development and you'll soon be among Romsey's pretty streets. Here you'll find independent shops and boutiques alongside more familiar high street names as well as the town's department store, Bradbeers.

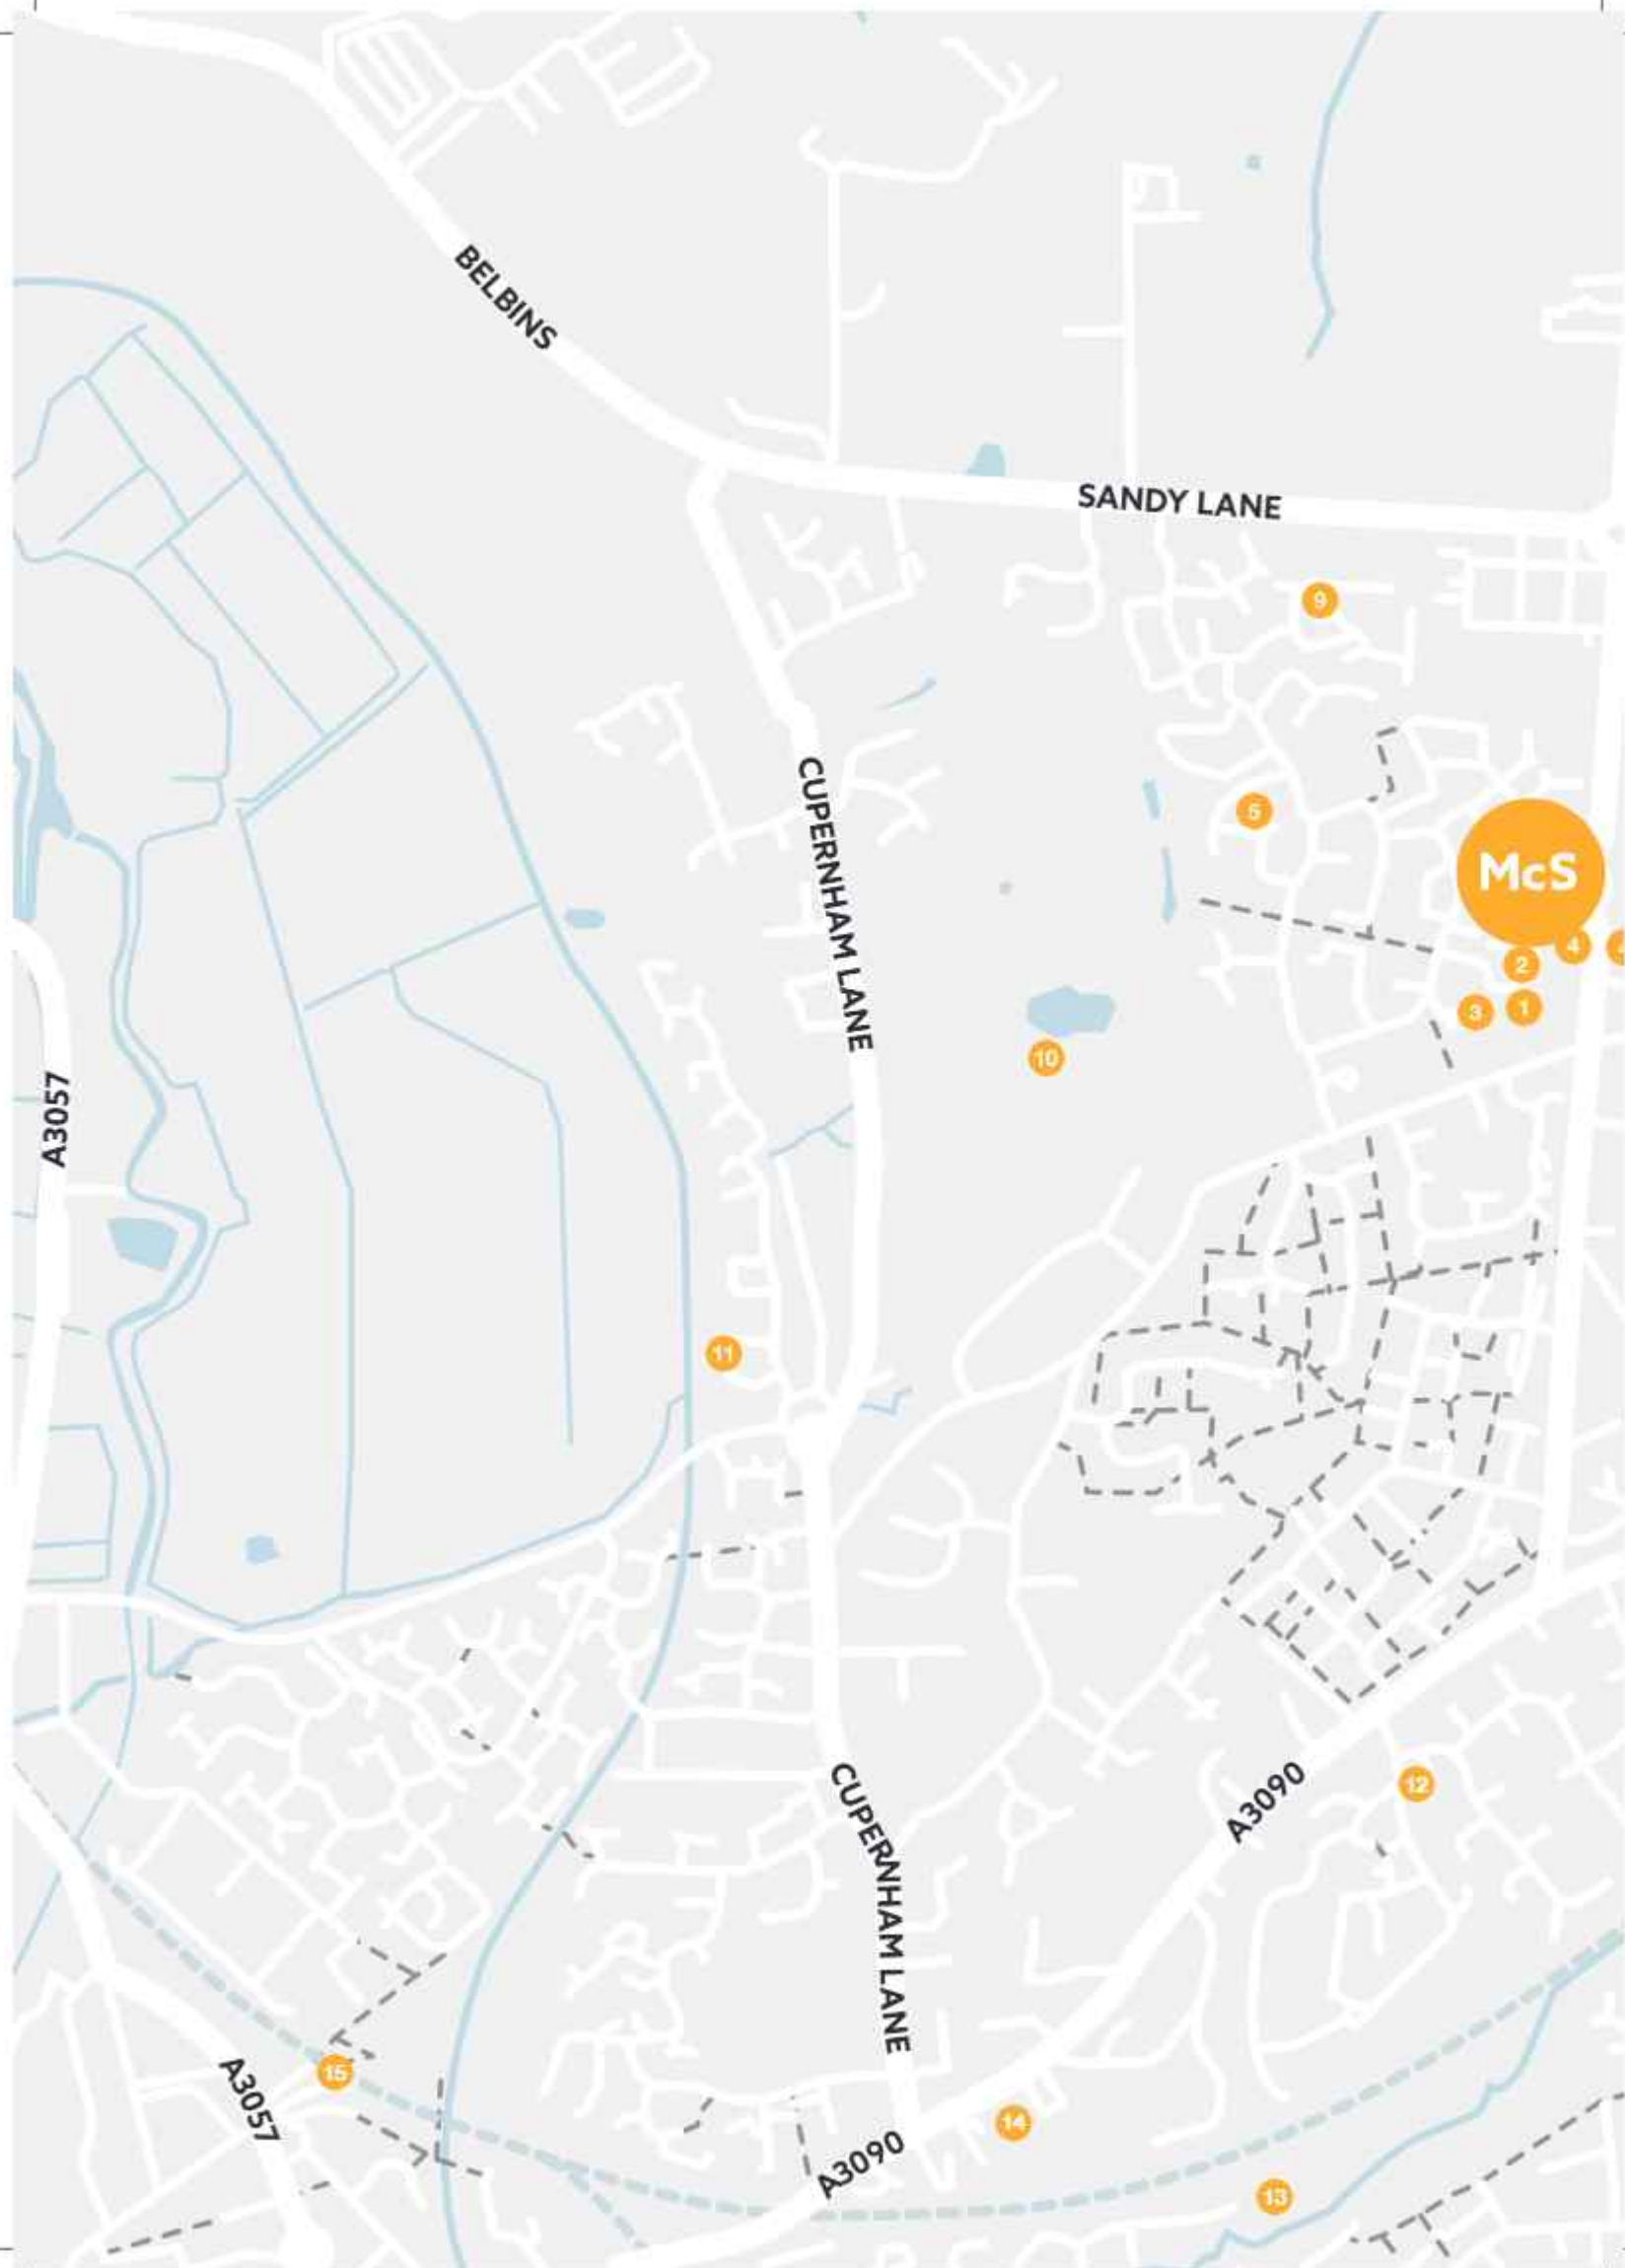

Foodies won't be disappointed. Several alfresco cafes offer home baked treats and light lunches made with locally farmed ingredients — The Dish Deli and Kitchen in Latimer Street is a county favourite. There is a good selection of pubs and eateries as well as a monthly farmer's market.

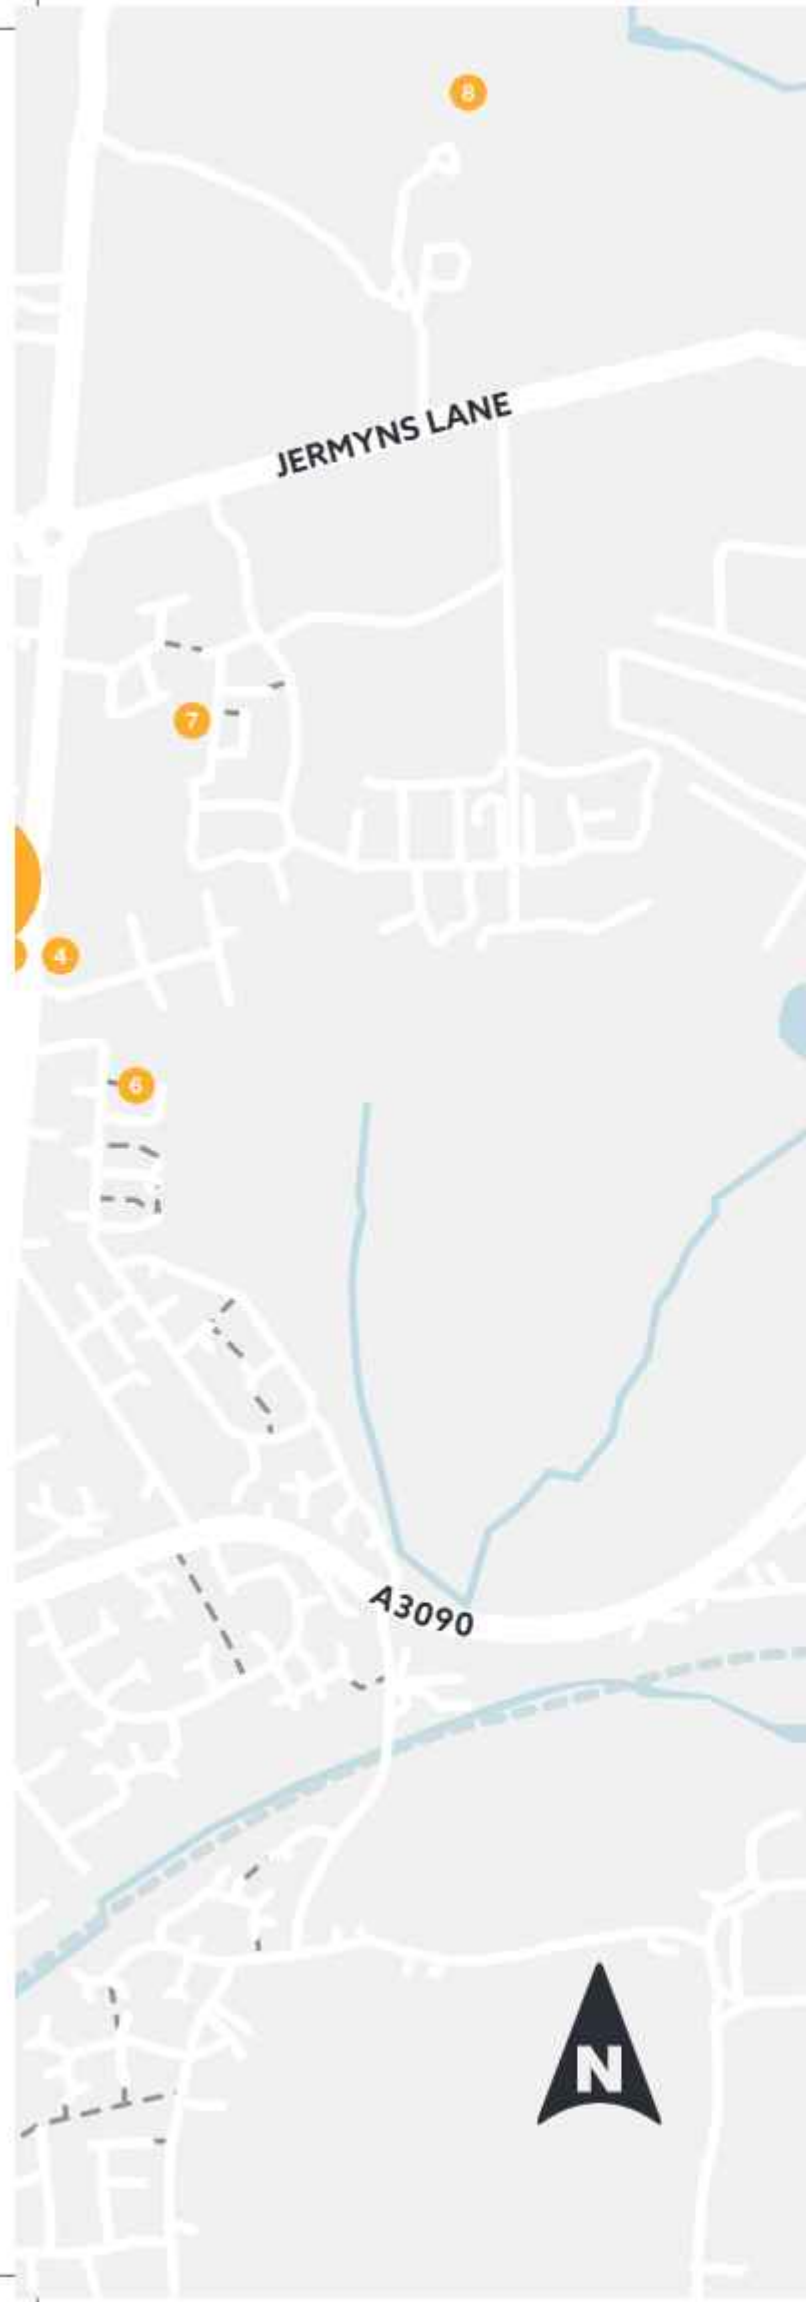

As you explore, you'll notice Romsey's architectural charm. Medieval streets cluster around a magnificent Norman abbey, and close by you'll discover a 13th-century hunting lodge and a 16th-century coaching inn, now The White Horse Hotel.

Regular events make for a thriving cultural scene, including a summer festival and winter carnival. And if you enjoy keeping fit, there are two local sport centres less than a mile away.

Outdoor lovers will appreciate several beauty spots all within a 3-minute car journey, including Fishlake Meadows Nature Reserve and Sir Harold Hillier gardens. Nearby, the Test Way offers 44 miles of picturesque countryside and villages, and you can drive to the New Forest National Park in less than 20 minutes.

Romsey has good travel links with its train station linking you to the Southwest coastal towns and the Isle of Wight, the M3 and M27 are within easy reach.

MADE FOR MODERN LIVING, INSIDE AND OUT.

As you approach Glebe Court, you'll immediately appreciate the thoughtful design of the exterior. The lightly coloured brickwork and grey, pitched rooves are a complement to the traditional character of the nearby town. The neat and well-maintained gardens that surround it complete the picture.

The reception area offers a warm welcome to homeowners, friends, and family alike. Walk on a little further and you'll soon discover the communal lounge – the social heart of Glebe Court. From catching up over a morning coffee to a lively evening social event, this light and airy space is where our community can spend time together. If you just want to relax with a good book or a newspaper, there are lots of quiet spaces too.

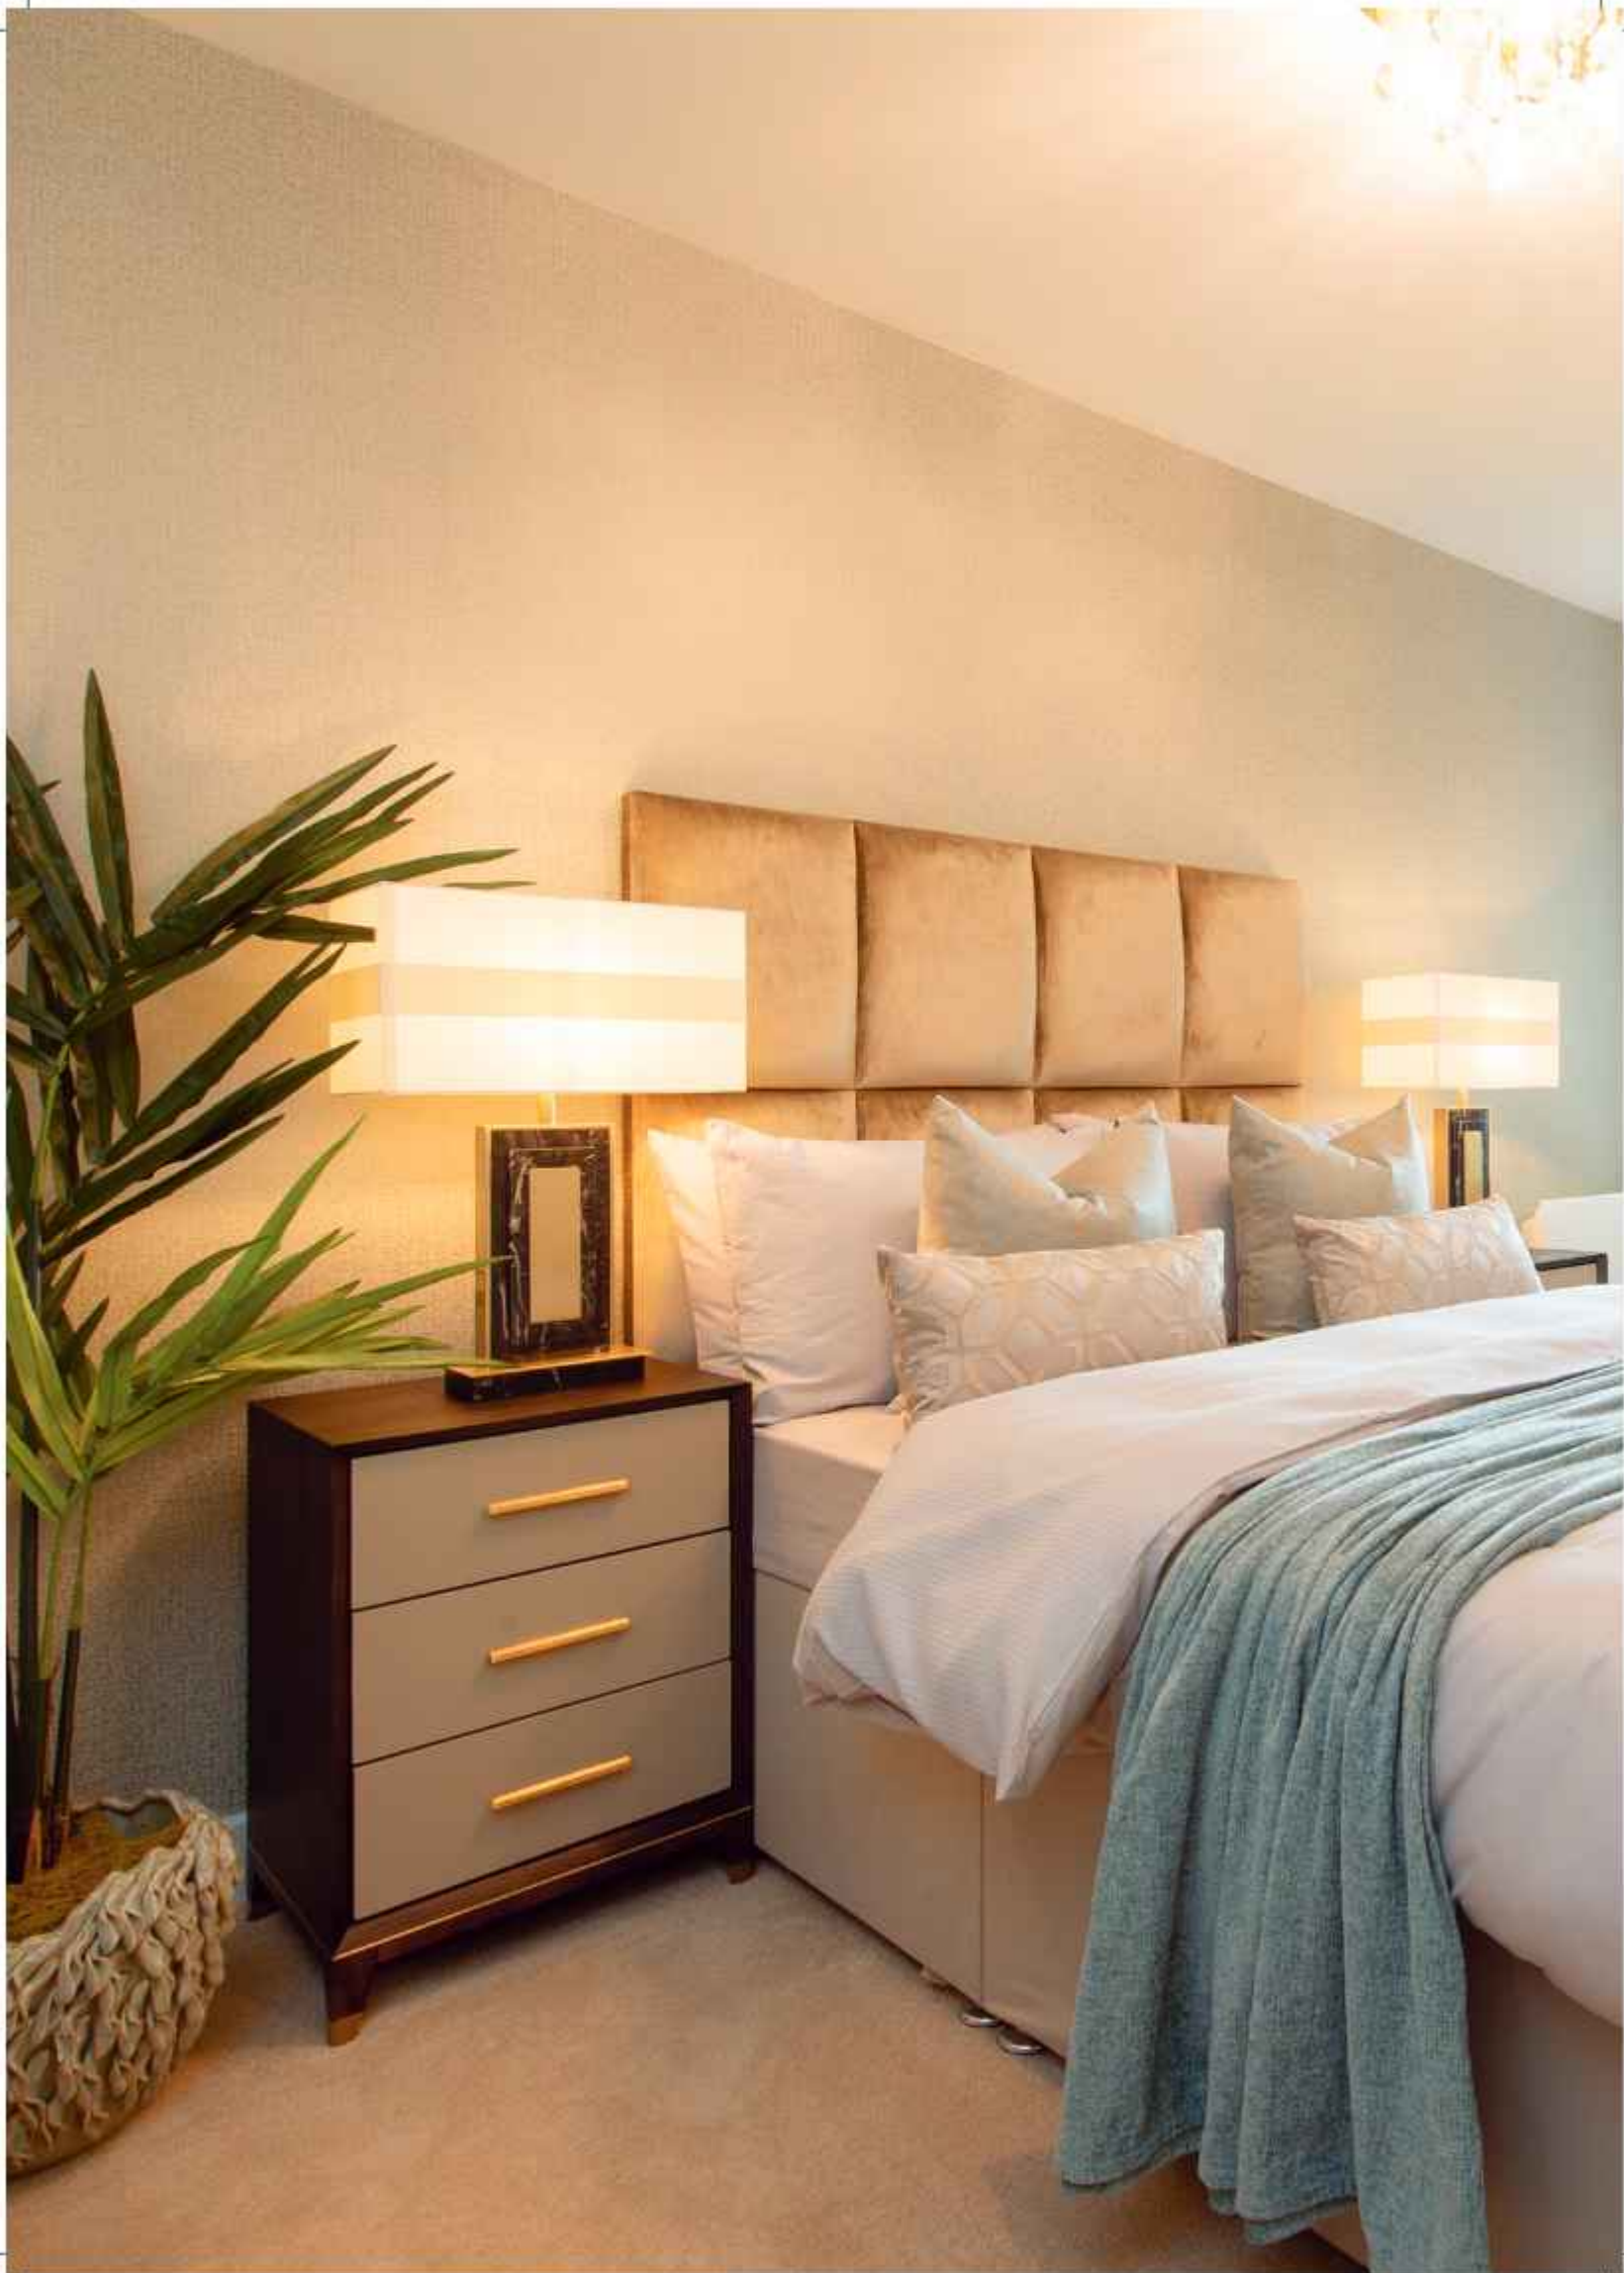

Outside, a large patio serves as a suntrap and a place to enjoy the communal gardens. With lots of seating, it's a wonderful spot for socialising or soaking up some sun during the warmer months.

As you explore the beautifully landscaped garden, you'll find it delights for all seasons. Each plant, shrub and tree has been carefully selected for their vibrant colours or subtle hues, while raised beds and a charming wood pergola complete this oasis of tranquillity. And don't worry – you won't need to lift a trowel or wrestle with a lawnmower to enjoy the garden. We look after all the outside spaces for you.
