About the Property

If you are looking for a charming village cottage that blends period character with thoughtful modern upgrades, Conifer Cottage is sure to impress. This two bedroom clay lump end-terrace has been lovingly improved by the current owner, creating a home that combines traditional charm with contemporary comfort.

Located in the heart of the desirable village of East Harling, just a short walk from local amenities, the property is entered via a porch into a cosy lounge, complete with a brick fireplace and a modern wood-burning stove. An adjoining study/playroom provides versatile space, while the kitchen opens onto the garden and includes useful under-stairs storage.

The first floor comprises two bedrooms, the principal bedroom featuring fitted wardrobes, along with a bathroom off the landing. Believed to date from the 19th century, the cottage retains a variety of period features throughout.

The current owner has carefully maintained and upgraded the property, ensuring many of the costly and time-consuming jobs typical of older homes have already been completed. These improvements include a new roof and boiler installed in 2024 and a new log burner fitted in 2025. Additional benefits include uPVC double glazing and gas central heating, providing both comfort and peace of mind.

Conifer Cottage perfectly combines period charm with modern convenience, making it a home that is ready to enjoy from day one. A viewing is highly recommended to truly appreciate all the benefits this property has to offer.

The Outside

The property features a good-sized lawned garden to the side, while at the rear a courtyard garden offers a sunny spot for relaxation with access into the kitchen. The gardens are fully enclosed by brick walls and panelled fencing, providing a good degree of privacy. A gate offers access to the road, and on-street parking is available directly in front of the property.
