On the first floor, a landing area gives way to the 3 bedrooms, family bathroom and the airing cupboard. Both bedrooms one and two are doubles, with built-in wardrobes.

The stunning modern bathroom includes a bath with shower unit, satin white brick tiles, brass fittings and navy accents.

To the rear of the property you will find the lovely enclosed west-facing cottage garden comprising of both paved and lawned sections. There is a detached garage with lighting and electric socket points. The garden can be accessed from the exterior door of the kitchen as well as through the integrated side gate from the driveway.

Location

7 Rosemary Drive occupies an idyllic setting within the popular village of Tregynon in the heart of the beautiful Mid Wales. The area is renowned for its outstanding natural beauty and is a haven for nature enthusiasts and those of an active disposition. Encompassed by stunning scenic countryside with rolling hill tops as far as the eye can see the village and nearby surroundings are popular with walkers and cyclists and present a variety of outdoor pursuits.

Tregynon is a close knit and friendly community which embraces the 'laid back', tranquil lifestyle and sits alongside the B4389 between the small town of Llanfair Caereinion (6 miles north) and much larger town of Newtown (5 miles south). The village offers useful facilities to include a church, a primary school, garage, shop, post office and a village hall which hosts a number of active social groups and clubs throughout the year.

Tregynon is also home to the Gregynog Estate. There has been a Hall at Gregynog since the 12th Century. The current Hall which is around 150 years old was home to the renowned Davies sisters. The sisters lived at Gregynog from 1924, and turned it into an important centre for music, the arts and fine printing. They decorated it with their priceless collection of paintings by Renoir, Monet, Cezanne and many others. These works now hang in the National Museum of Wales in Cardiff but many lesser known pictures and some fine prints and pieces of sculpture remain at Gregynog.

The Estate is now open as a Events venue and the Grounds, comprising of 750 acres, a National Nature Reserve, as well as Grade 1 Listed gardens, café and gift shop are open to the public and extremely popular with dog walkers, heritage lovers and families.
