The Property

Gwernant is a small holding found at the end of a shared private lane located off the A470 on the edge of the popular village of Llandinam.

The sale of this property includes a traditional Welsh farmhouse, multiple farm outbuildings and approximately 10 acres of land.

The accommodation at Gwernant is spread over two floors including an entrance porch, a country kitchen, two reception rooms, three double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The house has been a beloved family home for over 48 years and retains many period features including wooden beams and fireplaces.

The main reception room includes a large wood-burner which is linked to the oil fired central heating system. The second reception room, which features an open fireplace with stone chimney breast, is currently being used as a treatment room but would make an ideal dining room, snug or playroom. The spacious kitchen is fitted with a range of base and wall cupboards as well as space for a family dining table and opens onto the rear courtyard, ideal for hosting summer evening BBQs. Upstairs the master bedroom benefits from built in wardrobes and a feature fireplace. The two further bedrooms would comfortably fit double beds. The family bathroom includes a bath with shower unit, wash basin and WC. The house was fitted with triple glazing throughout in 2019.

To the front of the house is a west facing walled garden with patio and lawned areas. To the rear and side are further cottage style gardens with wildflower banks, resplendent in spring and early summer.

The house and farmyard are enveloped in approximately 10 acres of land, which are split into 6 paddocks. Over the last few years this land has been rented out to local farmers for grazing and silage growing (an arrangement that can continue if desired).

The outbuildings include a large steel framed barn, on one side of the generous yard, which has previously housed a number of large agricultural vehicles as well as 1,400 hay bales. It also benefits from an additional lean-to. On the other side of the yard there are traditional agricultural farm buildings and second modern shed in line with the farmhouse. These buildings were previously used for calf rearing and could easily revert back to agricultural function for those wishing to use the property as a traditional small holding. A further shed and static caravan are situated in the top field behind the house.

What cannot be underestimated with this property is the abundance of potential it represents! For those wishing to expand the living accommodation, the farm buildings to the side of the house offer the perfect means to do so (subject to obtaining necessary planning permissions.) The property would also offer the perfect location for equestrian, agricultural, tourism or commercial use.

We would highly recommend booking your viewing of the Gwernant, so you too can open up your imagination to all the opportunities there are!

Location

Llandinam village is located in the heart of Montgomeryshire, on the A470 between Llanidloes and Newtown. The village is rich in history being the former home of David Davies, famed 19th Century Industrialist and Philanthropist. To this day the village has a vibrant community and boasts a village pub, a popular primary school, nursery and forest school, weekly post-office services and a well supported Village Hall which hosts a range of events from coffee mornings to exercise classes.

For anyone interested in pursuing outdoor activities the opportunities are endless. Llandinam is under 10 miles from the Llyn Clywedog Dam, a 615 acre reservoir built on the head waters of the river Severn in the late sixties, offering scenic walking and cycling routes as well as trout fishing through the local Angling Club.

The beautiful neighbouring Mid Wales town of Llanidloes has much to offer residents and visitors alike. It is home to the iconic Market Hall which is the oldest timber-framed market hall still in situ in Wales.

The town itself is packed with amenities including a dentists, Medical Centre, cottage hospital, Primary School, Secondary School with Welsh and English language streams, pubs, cafes, take-aways and a wide range of shops ranging from butchers / fishmongers / bakeries / greengrocers to an independent book shop and artisanal boutiques.

The property is just off the A470 a main visitor route into Mid Wales. It is served by local bus routes and is close to Caersws and Newtown train stations.
