The Location

Nestled in the heart of the picturesque Montgomeryshire countryside, Hen-Domen is a charming and peaceful hamlet that offers the perfect blend of rural serenity and historical intrigue. Surrounded by rolling hills, lush pastures, and timeless woodland, this hidden gem provides a truly idyllic setting for those seeking a slower pace of life.

Hen-Domen is perhaps best known for its fascinating medieval roots. Once the site of an early Norman motte-and-bailey castle—precursor to nearby Montgomery Castle—this quiet hamlet holds echoes of centuries past, making it a dream location for history lovers and nature enthusiasts alike.

Despite its seclusion, Hen-Domen is just a short drive from the historic market town of Montgomery, with its medieval street layout, imposing Town Hall, mix of Georgian, Victorian and timber framed buildings and an active and generous community, it's a place where time seems to stand still. The town benefits from a range of local services including a post office, general store, tearooms, pubs, a hotel, medical centre, library, activity centre, primary school, church, and chapel - not forgetting the famous hardware store Bunnings. The Georgian Town Hall is the focus of the town's programme of events and is the venue for the Thursday market and Saturday coffee mornings.

The town is home to numerous volunteer groups, clubs and societies offering sport, gardening, dance, singing, wellbeing activities and more. Youngsters can take part in Cubs, Brownie and Guide groups while older residents enjoy regular gatherings hosted by the Luncheon Club and Chatterbox. This is a town that appeals to all generations, young to old, with something to offer everyone. There is a jam-packed calendar of events from literary & musical festivals to to historical celebrations, street fairs and sporting events. One of the main attractions to visitors of the town is Montgomery Castle and grounds with it's stunning views over the surrounding area.
