The Property

There are some houses in the world that instantly spark curiosity and 6 Salop Street is certainly one of those properties. Anyone who knows Bishops Castle will have walked past it's blue door numerous times and thought "I wonder what lies within." Well, Holters are delighted to introduce this truly unique property to the market, ready for it to be discovered by it's next custodian.

6 Salop Street is a deceptively spacious link-detached character property, believed to date back to early 19th Century. Bought by the current owners in 2015, it is rich in history with one former resident believed to be a legendary Bishops Castle character, named Miss Gotobed!

The accommodation, which spans over four floors, consists of a living room, kitchen, three double bedrooms, family bathroom and converted cellar.

You enter directly into the living room, complete with wooden beams and log burner, perfect for cosy winter evenings. The living room leads directly into the country-style kitchen with traditional shaker-style cabinetry. A central wooden island, with rustic stools, provides a welcoming spot for casual dining or morning coffee, and clever shelving and alcoves add both charm and function.

Moving up to the first floor, you find the first of the generous double bedrooms and the recently updated spacious family bathroom with large walk in shower, stand-alone bath, wash-basin and WC. The two remaining bedrooms are located on the second floor.

A further set of stairs from the kitchen leads down to cellar, which the current owners have spent considerable time converting, including tanking, making it a usable and versatile space. It is configured into 3 rooms and is currently being used as a utility / storage space but has potential for additional usage (subject to relevant planning and permissions)

To the rear of the property, in a courtyard accessed by a private lane, is the property's dedicated parking space which at present has a small shed on it.

This gem of a property has a lot to offer and is definitely worth a viewing!
