The Property

Pen-Y-Bryn is a beautifully presented and spacious detached house set on a generous corner plot—making it the perfect modern family home. Despite being just a 10-minute walk from Newtown town centre, its elevated position in a popular residential area offers lovely countryside views, along with a sense of tranquillity and security ideal for family life.

Originally built in the 1980s, the current owners purchased the property in 2017 and have since extensively modernised and redecorated throughout.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors. On the ground floor, you'll find an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor, a sitting room, family room, dining room, fully equipped kitchen, utility room, and a downstairs shower room with WC. The main sitting room features a built-in media station and a log burner, perfect for cosy winter evenings. The second reception room has sliding doors opening onto the enclosed side garden, making it an ideal family room where children (and pets) can play safely on a summer's day.

The beautifully presented kitchen includes classic shaker-style cabinetry, a generous central island with butcher block countertops, and a ceramic Belfast sink. Thoughtful integrated storage solutions ensure a clutter-free environment. The kitchen opens into the family dining room, which offers ample space for a large dining table, creating a perfect open-plan setting for modern family life and entertaining.

Stairs from the main entrance hall lead to a spacious galleried landing giving access to four double bedrooms, two of which include built-in storage. The two front bedrooms enjoy gorgeous views over the surrounding Montgomeryshire hills. The family bathroom consists of a bath, walk-in shower, wash basin, and WC. The master bedroom also benefits from an en-suite shower room.

A separate door from the kitchen leads to the utility room and additional accommodation. From here, a door provides access to the garage, and stairs lead up to a generous room above, currently used as a playroom but equally suitable as a home office or fifth bedroom. This versatile space, along with the garage below, could easily be converted into a spacious self-contained annexe, ideal for multi-generational living (subject to the relevant planning permissions). This upper room even benefits from its own WC.

Outside, a driveway offers off-road parking for several vehicles. A large patio spans the main frontage of the house, and there are lawned areas to both the front and side of the property.

One of the key attractions of Pen-Y-Bryn is that it offers its next owner a turn-key family home, with the additional benefit of flexible space that can be further adapted both inside and out to suit your individual needs.
