The Property

Built in 1832 and cherished by the same family since 1976, 4 Bridge End is a rare opportunity to acquire a characterful period property in the heart of the desirable village of Churchstoke. Full of charm and original features, this spacious four-bedroom terrace house offers a wealth of internal space and enormous potential, both inside and out.

The accommodation is full of original character, with exposed beams, feature fireplaces, and traditional cabinetry adding to the homely feel. A cosy wood-burning stove forms the centerpiece of the main lounge, while additional reception rooms offer ideal flexibility for family life, entertaining or working from home.

The generous ground floor layout includes two main reception rooms as well as a further room currently used as a study/snug, offering excellent versatility for modern living. The bright and functional kitchen enjoys views to the rear and leads through to a family bathroom and a separate, recently updated wet room, enhancing the practicality of the layout for multigenerational households or accessible needs.

Upstairs, there are four good-sized bedrooms, each filled with natural light and offering scope for redecoration. Three of the four bedrooms include built-in storage. The upstairs also benefits from a shower room with WC and washbasin. While the property would benefit from modernisation, it stands as a lovingly maintained blank canvas ready for a new chapter.

Outside, the home features a private, enclosed courtyard garden to the front, ideal for enjoying the open aspect. At the end of the terrace lies a detached garage, off-road parking area, greenhouse, and workshop/store, offering superb potential for a variety of uses – from hobby space to possible conversion (subject to planning).

To the rear, a tiered garden plot rises to enjoy outstanding views across rooftops and the surrounding countryside, perfect for landscaping or growing your own.

Located within easy reach of Churchstoke's excellent amenities – including a supermarket, school, pubs and beautiful walking routes – this is a unique chance to modernise a home with deep roots, generous space, and endless possibilities.
