Charming First Floor Flat in Period Building

This first-floor flat offers 583 square feet of potential in a well-maintained red-brick period building. With two bedrooms, one bathroom, and a spacious living area, the flat provides a comfortable layout that can be updated to suit modern tastes.

The living room features a beautiful Victorian fireplace, adding character and warmth to the space. While the flat would benefit from some updating throughout, it offers an exciting opportunity to put your own stamp on it.

Situated between Hampstead, West Hampstead, and Finchley Road, the property is just moments from local shops, cafes, and green spaces. Excellent transport links, including West Hampstead and Finchley Road stations, provide easy access to central London.
