Description

This home will strongly appeal to families seeking flexible space for everyday living, with plenty of room for entertaining and quiet working areas too. Tucked away in a peaceful cul-de-sac with a private garden, it offers a warm setting ready for its next chapter, so early viewing is encouraged.

This property opens with a welcoming hallway that leads directly into a bright lounge and dining area where natural light streams through large windows. From here, sliding doors connect to a conservatory, creating a seamless link between indoor comfort and the greenery of the garden beyond. The kitchen, positioned to the rear, is well presented with fitted appliances, a gas hob, tiled flooring and a useful understairs cupboard. On the ground floor, there is also a cloakroom and a study room, which can easily serve as a fifth bedroom if required, adding to the home's flexibility for larger families or those working from home. Upstairs, the master bedroom benefits from a large built-in storage cupboard, with potential to be converted into an en suite. Three further doubles and a modern refitted four-piece bathroom complete the first floor, making the house well suited for a growing household. Outside, the driveway provides parking, and the rear garden is both private and well sized, enclosed with hedging and fencing. A patio area makes an inviting spot for gatherings, while a lean-to offers handy storage.
