A traditional and beautifully presented extended three bedroom semi-detached property located on a highly desirable tree lined road in Timperley, with the front elevation facing Altrincham Golf Course, and probably the largest and best rear garden on the road. Popular in demand local schools are nearby in both Timperley and Altrincham. To the front there is a block paved driveway and mature well kept front garden leading to the entrance porch. Entrance hallway with cloakroom w.c. Large extended open plan dining kitchen, with a range of contemporary units and modern appliances and feature herringbone floor, with patio doors leading to rear patio and landscaped garden. Separate utility room, and storage area. Two generous sized reception rooms with feature decorative fire surrounds. First floor, large master bedroom with built in wardrobes, second double bedroom, and additional third bedroom. Modern family bathroom with shower over bath. The loft provides a great space for a variety of uses, with power, lighting, heating and fully carpeted floor. Part furnished.
