Belmont House was sympathetically converted into six apartments five years ago, and boasts a tasteful blend of period features and modern conveniences. This first floor apartment briefly comprises a welcoming reception room, a well appointed kitchen with integrated appliances, two generously sized double bedrooms, and a modern family bathroom.

Communal Entrance

The front door opens into a wide and inviting hallway, retaining its original flooring and period character. A staircase directly ahead leads to the first floor, where the private entrance to the apartment is located on the left hand side

Hallway

Upon entering the apartment, you are greeted by a generous hallway with five internal hardwood doors leading to the lounge, two bedrooms, and the bathroom. The hallway also grants access to the loft space.

Lounge

A bright reception room, enhanced by three front facing sash windows fitted with shutter blinds, flooding the space with natural light. A marble Adam style fireplace with tiled inset and hearth, along with the coved ceiling and ceiling rose, all contribute to the room's period charm. A further doorway leads through to the kitchen.

Kitchen

It comes with integrated appliances including a fridge/freezer, dishwasher, electric oven, four-ring hob, and extractor fan. Three sash windows at the front let in loads of natural light and are fitted with shutter blinds. There's oak-effect flooring underfoot, plinth lighting for a cosy touch, a radiator, and space with plumbing for a washing machine. The Electrolux boiler is tucked away neatly in a larder cupboard

Bedroom One

A spacious, and tastefully presented, double bedroom, benefiting from a rear facing UPVC sash window with shutter blinds, allowing for both privacy and natural light. The room benefits from built-in fitted wardrobes with partly mirrored sliding doors, offering excellent storage. Further features include a radiator, coved ceiling, and a decorative ceiling rose, adding charm and character to this well appointed room.

Bedroom Two

12'11" x 9'11" (3.96m x 3.04m)

A further generously proportioned double bedroom with a rear facing UPVC sash window and shutter blind. This room also benefits from a central heating radiator, decorative coved ceiling, and a ceiling rose.

Bathroom

This generously sized bathroom is fitted with a modern four piece suite comprising a low-level WC, pedestal wash hand basin, panelled bath, and a fully tiled shower cubicle.

The property comes with a designated parking space, as well as two visitor parking spaces available on a first-come, first served basis. Residents can also enjoy access to a charming communal garden area.
