The Woodlands. Dream homes to suit every taste and every lifestyle.

Life in the heart of the West Sussex countryside, close to quintessential English villages and the vibrant south coast.

The countryside at Sayers Common

When it comes to location, The Woodlands really does have it all. You'll find these beautiful homes in a popular residential setting in the idyllic Mid Sussex district of the West Sussex countryside. It's a delightfully small, semi-rural community, surrounded by historic, picture-perfect cottages in quintessential English villages and close to all the vibrant south coast and its shoreline has to offer.

The Woodlands sits in the civil parish of Hurstpierpoint and Sayers Common; two pretty village hamlets just two miles apart. A local community shop is on your doorstep for all essentials along with the village pub, The Duke of York, offering superb food and drinks and a warm welcome to all. Many more quaint country pubs, restaurants and shops are nestled in nearby villages, including Hassocks, Hurstpierpoint, Burgess Hill and Ditchling, and in larger towns a short drive away.

This quiet countryside has much to offer all ages and epitomises the very best of life in the great British outdoors. The ancient bluebell groves of Sayers Common Wood and Coombe Wood near the historic Christ Church sit close by and there are fabulous adventures and pursuits to be enjoyed across the neighbouring South Downs National Park.

Woods Mill Nature Reserve, Bedelands Farm Nature Reserve, Victoria Park Splashpad and many other outdoor activity centres offer hours of fun for all the family in breathtaking habitats and countryside landscapes – and all less than five miles away.

Enjoy everything the South Coast has to offer.

As a location, Sayers Common is perfectly placed to enjoy the best that West Sussex has to offer. The beautiful, bustling cathedral city of Chichester is 33 miles west of the development, offering a thriving array of retail, hospitality and leisure amenities in a charming, historic setting, whilst the old market town of Crawley is just under 13 miles to the north.

To the south, the coastal resorts of Brighton and Worthing are within easy striking distance, at 12 miles and 17 miles respectively, with an abundance of spectacular coastal scenery - and a fabulous choice of watersports to enjoy. And yet, for a region so closely associated with the south coast, London is also surprisingly close, little more than 45 miles away.

London Gatwick Airport, is also just a stones-throw away, at 18 miles from The Woodlands, offering flights to locations across the world.

Sayers Common also sits on the fringes of the South Downs National Park. Stretching nearly 90 miles from Winchester to Eastbourne, Beachy Head and the iconic Seven Sisters cliffs, the South Downs is a spectacular, timeless landscape of rolling chalk hills and heavily wooded vales. Loved by walkers, horse riders and mountain bikers, it's a wonderful place to escape into nature and restore the spirits.

A charming Sussex village with a rich local history and perfect spot to enjoy the best of country and coast. Or a brilliantly connected location, whether you're commuting or working from home, however you look at it, The Woodlands is a place you'll be proud to call home.
