A Grand 19th Century, double fronted Grade II Listed House, currently undergoing restoration, set in a prominent position overlooking the cliffs with far reaching sea views. This captivating three storey property which offers substantial accommodation including three ground floor reception rooms, a large kitchen plus other auxiliary rooms has six bedrooms (two en suite) to the first and second floors with a first floor drawing room overlooking the cliffs at the front to take in the renowned Hunstanton sunsets over the sea.

The property is situated in the sought after Old Hunstanton area. Hunstanton itself is a traditional Victorian seaside town on the North West Norfolk coastline, well known for being the only West facing town on the East coast providing spectacular sunset vistas across the Wash. The town provides residents with a good array of amenities including supermarkets, independent retailers, cafes, restaurants (a locally renowned Michelin Starred restaurant just around the corner) and the top 100 rated Hunstanton Golf Club championship links course. The broad, sandy beaches of Hunstanton & Old Hunstanton are a particular feature as are the white & red chalk sandstone cliffs.

Corner House, Cromer Road, Old Hunstanton.
