RP&C Estate Agents are proud to present this exquisite four double bedroom detached residence, a true gem nestled in a coveted avenue and framed by your very own private woodland. From the moment you arrive, the grandeur of this executive family home enchants, with immaculate presentation, extensive living space, and parking for eight or more vehicles on a handsome, landscaped frontage.

Step inside through a grand and welcoming entrance hall, rich with storage and flooded with light. The heart of the home unfolds into a sumptuous open-plan kitchen/family room, where modern luxury reigns—gleaming Bosch appliances, a wine cooler, and a sophisticated kitchen flow into a stunning living/dining area crowned by a lantern roof and bi-folding doors that dissolve the boundaries between inside and out.

For quiet evenings, retreat to the bay-fronted lounge, complete with French doors opening onto the garden terrace. A utility room and ground floor WC add everyday practicality without compromising style.

Ascend to the first floor where four generous double bedrooms await, each a haven of space and light. The master suite features a sleek ensuite shower room, while the contemporary four-piece family bathroom invites indulgence.

Outside, the rear garden stretches generously, private and unoverlooked—a sanctuary of green with a mature wooded area at the boundary, perfect for tranquil walks or adventurous play. A stylish patio offers the ideal spot for al fresco dining under starlit skies.

Located within easy reach of well-regarded schools, essential amenities, and convenient bus and rail links to London Liverpool Street, this home offers both serenity and connectivity in equal measure.

A rare blend of refined living and natural beauty, homes like this come once in a lifetime. Arrange your viewing without delay.
