- Sold with a share of freehold
- Fantastic location on the doorstep of Leigh Broadway
- Private entrance
- Spacious bay-fronted open plan living space
- 12' feature bathroom with circular stained glass lead light windows
- Within easy reach of travel links into Central London
- Incredible first time purchase
- Large 13' master bedroom

This sizable and well-presented three-bedroom maisonette is arranged over two generous floors and occupies a highly desirable position in Leigh-on-Sea, just moments from the vibrant Leigh Broadway and within easy reach of excellent transport links into central London.

Offered to the market with no onward chain and a share of the freehold, the property benefits from its own private entrance, which leads via a staircase to a bright and spacious bay-fronted lounge / kitchen area – perfect for both relaxing and entertaining. The first floor further impresses with a truly striking 12-foot family bathroom, featuring unique circular stained-glass windows, a generously sized 13-foot double bedroom, and a convenient utility area.

A further staircase leads to the top floor, where you will find two additional well-proportioned rooms, offering flexible accommodation for family, guests, or a home office.

Presented in good condition throughout, this charming maisonette combines character, space, and an unbeatable location — making it an ideal home or investment opportunity.
