A beautifully presented two double bedroom ground-floor flat offering an exceptional combination of space, lifestyle and long-term value, ideally located on the ever-popular Shaftesbury Avenue, Southend-on-Sea.

This superb home benefits from off-street parking for one vehicle, direct access to a private south-facing garden, and the rare advantage of a valuable share of freehold (potential for full freehold, please enquire for further details), all offered with no onward chain for a smooth and stress-free purchase.

Internally, the property is bright, spacious and well laid out. There are two generous double bedrooms, including an impressive bay-fronted principal bedroom, while the second double bedroom offers excellent flexibility for guests, family or home working, with patio doors opening into the rear garden. The good-sized lounge, enhanced by a charming side bay window, provides a fantastic space to relax and entertain.

To the rear, the kitchen opens directly onto the garden, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor feel and making the most of the sunny south-facing aspect — perfect for summer evenings, alfresco dining or simply unwinding outdoors. The accommodation is completed by a stylish, contemporary shower room finished to a high standard.

Perfectly positioned, the property is within easy reach of Southchurch Park and the seafront, offering scenic walks and coastal leisure, while excellent transport links provide convenient access into Central London, making it ideal for commuters and lifestyle buyers alike.

An outstanding opportunity combining location, outdoor space, parking, freehold ownership and no chain — early viewing is highly recommended.
