A bright and well proportioned two bedroom, two bathroom apartment situated on the third floor of this well located period building with lift.

This delightful apartment is in very good condition throughout and consists of a large south facing reception room, two bedrooms, two bathrooms and a separate modern kitchen. Located in a well maintained period building, the property further benefits from direct lift access into the apartment and an abundance of natural light.

Hans Crescent is a highly desirable location in the heart of Knightsbridge and moments from Harrods. It is conveniently located for access to the wide variety of shops, cafes and restaurants in Knightsbridge and Sloane Street. The world renowned museums are also in close proximity as are the green open spaces of Hyde Park and the closest underground station is Knightsbridge (Piccadilly line).

In summary, this lovely apartment would make a wonderful home, rental investment or pied-à-terre for any discerning purchaser.
