A stunning and rarely available four bedroom, three bathroom lateral apartment with high ceilings and in excellent condition throughout, situated on the second floor in this desirable building in Earls Court Square.

Positioned on the second floor of the distinguished Wetherby Mansions, this beautifully proportioned four bedroom, three bathroom apartment offers refined living in one of Earls Court's most desirable garden square addresses. Consisting of two apartments now combined into one and spanning approximately 2200 square feet, the residence combines classical grandeur with the comforts of modern urban living.

Internally, the apartment is characterised by generous ceiling heights and expansive sash windows that flood the principal rooms with natural light. The large double reception room is ideal for entertaining, while the spacious eat-in kitchen offers a stylish and practical setting for family life with French doors leading to a private balcony.

Energy Efficiency Rating: C
