SELLER INSIGHT

“ Living at the end of the road has provided us with a wonderful sense of peace and security. The large garden is a tranquil haven, featuring a tennis court and swimming pool where we've enjoyed countless hours watching the kids swim and play. We have had some seriously good games ourselves with friends, holding "Whimledon"! The pool is equipped with a sectional lift-up cover, which ensures it keeps clean in the Winter and warms up quickly in the Summer, although there is a gas pool heater if needed.

The cottage has offered us a good income, and we've met many lovely guests over the years. Its seclusion ensures we're rarely disturbed, while still being close enough to assist if needed.

This house has been a fantastic family home, perfect for raising our children and welcoming our grandchildren. The bedroom above the cider press room doubles as our summer retreat and guest space, complete with an en-suite and stunning views through the French doors and Juliet balcony.

We love entertaining in the kitchen during summer, with easy access to indoor and outdoor seating, while the cozy dining room, heated by 'Big Bertha' our Jotul wood burner, is perfect for winter gatherings.

The conservatory is a cherished space where I enjoy pottering around. . It has the original water pump which could be connected, as we have our own Well.

The sitting room has a cosy end by the fireplace to relax in, while the spacious area on the opposite side accommodates gatherings of family and friends.

The ideal office/playroom set up is a real bonus for our family, especially having a toilet close by for the grandkids!

We have several outbuildings, some of which were originally stables from when we had donkeys and horses. These structures offer ample storage space and include a workshop, as well as a feed store for our chickens and ducks. One of the outbuildings houses an outdoor shower, perfect for rinsing off dirty dogs and kids!

We have doves that live in the dovecote and watching the doves bathing in the ponds is a pure delight.

The vegetable garden with polytunnel, greenhouses and fruit cage keeps us supplied all year-round. We also enjoy a productive fig tree and kiwi plants.

Our garden, with its many "zones" to explore, is home to newts, frogs, and visiting hedgehogs in summer. This home has been a sanctuary for us, and we look forward to seeing the next family create their own cherished memories here.*
