SPRINGFIELD

Welcome to Springfield, a beautifully renovated five bedroom detached property in the quiet village of Clent.

Comprising a large welcoming entry hall with feature staircase, open plan kitchen with dining and living areas, utility with separate laundry room, study and two further reception rooms. On the first floor you will find the five double bedrooms, four with ensuites, the main with the addition of a dressing area and the family bathroom.

The garden boasts a fabulous lawn with large patio area and ample space for children to play or a perfect place for entertaining. The two large paddocks are an excellent addition for those looking to have equestrian land.

The village of Clent has easy access to motorway networks and is within easy reach of Hagley and Belbroughton villages. Hagley gives further excellent commuter opportunities to Birmingham, Worcester and beyond via the train station and offers an array of local shops, restaurants and public houses. In addition, Belbroughton offers another variety of public houses, hairdressing salon and local shops. This perfect family home is within close proximity to the popular Clent Primary School which gives access to superb secondary schools in Hagley village. The ever popular National Trust Client Hills are also a short distance away, ideal for those who enjoy outdoor activities and walks.
