LAST ALEXANDER STYLE PLOT REMAINING

A rare opportunity to acquire the final Alexander style new build home in this sought-after development. Spanning over 1,500 sq. ft. of beautifully arranged living space across three floors, this property offers a harmonious blend of modern luxury and family functionality, all backed by a ten-year build warranty for complete peace of mind. From the striking central island kitchen to the light-filled lounge with Juliette balconies, every detail has been designed to maximise space, comfort, and style. With four bedrooms, three bathrooms, and a host of versatile living areas, this home effortlessly accommodates both relaxed family living and entertaining.

The location of this property is equally impressive as it is situated within a short walk of Hertford town centre and its two mainline railway stations, providing direct access to London. The highly regarded Simon Balle Primary and Secondary and Richard Hale Secondary Schools are also within a short walk.
