40 West Park Homes, Darrington, Pontefract, WF8 3HY

For Sale Leasehold Offers In The Region Of £160,000

A newly completed two double bedroom detached park home with a dressing area and en suite facilities to the principal bedroom and beautifully finished to a high standard throughout.

The property has a side entrance hall, which leads through into a bright and airy living dining kitchen that has full height windows and French doors taking full advantage of the far reaching views over farmland. The principal bedroom has an adjoining dressing area, which leads through into an en suite shower room/w.c. and the second double bedroom is served by a well appointed family bathroom/w.c. Outside, the property has off street parking and wonderful far reaching views to the front.

Situated on this popular West Park Homes development on the outskirts of Darrington, the property enjoys easy access to the A1 in this cherished environment designed specifically for the over 40's. Interested parties should note that a separate access drive (for residents only) is available from Darrington, avoiding the current roadworks on the A1 motorway. West Park Homes has been a popular development since its inception and properties on this development are always sought after, especially when finished to this high standard.

Early viewings are highly recommended and can be booked through our Pontefract office.
