

*Subject to re-planning. These do not show the final gradients of land, boundary treatments, local authority street lighting or landscaping. We aim to build according to the layout, but occasionally we do have to change house designs, boundaries, landscaping and the positions of roads, footpaths, street lighting and other features as the development proceeds.

