PRICE:
€250,000

HOUSE SIZE: 108m²

The price includes both apartments situated in the Old Town of Rethymno, in a few steps to the sea, sandy beach and promenade of the city.

INTERIOR

The apartments are on the first floor, accessed by stairs from the common, ground floor entrance. The flats are furnished with the possibility of becoming a single apartment.

They are ideal for rental investment both long or short term. One apartment has on a level 40sqm open plan living room, dining room, kitchen and a bathroom. The attic of 20sqm has the bedroom. This flat looks to Arkadiou Street.

The second one bedroom apartment has 28sqm consisting of open plan living room - kitchen, a bathroom and a 20sqm attic with a bedroom. This one faces the road that goes down from Arkadiou to the beach. Both apartments provide air conditioning and boiler for hot water. Great location, next to the fortress, in the centre of the city, is providing walking distance to the sea, sandy beach, all kind of shops, public garden and all points of interest of Rethymno.

THE AREA

In the old town, one can find beautiful alleyways and narrow streets with cute cafes, bars, shops selling local crafts and restaurants. Rethymno is one of the best preserved medieval towns in Greece with many intact historical buildings and it's one of the most beautiful towns in Crete. The newly developed part of town has a vast sandy beach, which gently slopes into the sea.

The contrast of new and old in Rethymno makes it a great place for both families and couples.
