Homes in this desirable area are highly coveted due to their aesthetically pleasing appearance and superb extension potential allowing the next custodian to create the home of their dreams and there is plenty of inspiration nearby, as neighbouring properties have already undergone extensive refurbishments that are visually impressive and contribute to the upmarket feel of the area.

Located in an enviable position a short walk of Stoneleigh Broadway and railway station, this attractive 1930's home is designed and built in the popular 'chalet style' synonymous with Stoneleigh.

As you enter the home you are greeted by a spacious reception hall with a handy downstairs W.C and there are three independent reception rooms; a living room with feature fireplace and large bay window, a study/home office which can also be used as a fifth bedroom and a family/dining room all providing a choice of social spaces for the whole family to enjoy and providing access to fully fitted kitchen with an adjoining utility room.

Four generously sized double bedrooms are complemented by a spacious modern shower room providing a quiet space and sanctuary for rest and rejuvenation for the entire family.

Outside the level and secluded garden has been beautifully maintained and features a terrace seating area which leads to a beautiful lawn and access to the detached garage.

Stoneleigh is a highly sought after residential areas with a bustling Broadway of shops and restaurants at its heart, as well as a mainline railway station with services to Waterloo every twenty minutes. There is a choice of infant and junior schools within the immediate vicinity and the Historic Nonsuch Park runs alongside the South East side.

Both the M25 and A3 are easily accessible giving a straight forward route to London and both Heathrow and Gatwick international airports.

Epsom with its range of shops, restaurants, sports facilities, mainline railway station and theatre, as well as the Epsom Downs Racecourse which hosts the world renowned Derby Day is close by. Kingston offering a more comprehensive range of shops is also a short drive away.
