A leafy and lively location

Everything is perfectly in place for an easy life at Clapham Park, from transport connections and all kinds of shops to local gyms, schools and nurseries. The neighbourhood is also filled with loads of places to enjoy delicious food while supporting the local community. Grab some sourdough or hand-roasted coffee at one of the independents on nearby Abbeville Road. Or step out for the bustling eateries of Clapham High Street, Balham's gorgeous gastropubs and the world cuisine at Brixton Market, where you'll also find exceptional ingredients for cooking up a storm.

When it comes to the rest of your shopping, you might want to go artisan at the weekly farmers' market in nearby Bonnevile Gardens, and explore the area's independent wine and craft beer merchants. With a rich cultural heritage, the whole district is a treasure trove for unique clothing and décor finds, with Brixton and Northcote Road markets and Clapham Common's vintage shops just some of the highlights.

For nights out, you're on the doorstep of an entertainment hotbed that takes in Brixton's legendary O2 Academy and Electric Brixton, the independent Omnibus theatre and comedy club, plus plenty of underground and low-key events. Film-lovers will adore the Clapham Picturehouse, while theatre buffs should head to the Bread & Roses for award-winning fringe shows.

When it comes to green space, few areas of London offer so much, so close. From the leafy 200-acre Clapham Common with its ponds and Victorian bandstand to Brixton's Brockwell Park, where you'll find a stunning Art Deco lido and 19th century Georgian hall, nature is never far away. Or head south for Tooting Commons, where rare wildlife makes a home among the woods and acid grassland, right next to a historic lido, football and cricket pitches and tennis courts.

If you're looking for top-notch entertainment, Brixton has it all. An iconic London music, comedy and clubbing spot, its O2 Academy has hosted some of rock's most famous names. Or get a taste of the area's rich cultural history and culinary diversity at Brixton Market where you can eat and shop in unique style. For some social inspiration head to Brixton Pop, a buzzing pop-up where the local community makes great things happen.

12 minutes

King's Road

Soak up the unique atmosphere of one of the world's most famous roads. Between Chelsea's prettiest streets and squares, King's Road has a bohemian history unlike any other. Today it's an unbeatable place to spend some time discovering your look in the stylish shops, kicking back in the relaxed cafés and pubs, seeing some art at the Saatchi Gallery or simply catching the breeze and (famous) people watching.

The City of London

London's Square Mile is known as a world-class place to work – and with Bank station on a direct line from home, a City commute couldn't be easier. What's less well known is everything else that's on offer in this historic area. From bustling Spitalfields and Leadenhall markets to St Paul's, Broadgate and the Barbican, the Square Mile is a cultural hotspot packed with great places to wind down when work's done for the day.

25 minutes

Tate Modern

With a stunning permanent collection plus blockbuster exhibitions in a riverside building with stunning city views, this iconic gallery has something for everyone all year round. Always worth a visit for its architectural pizzazz, it now has a stunning new extension too. When you've seen the hundreds of artworks inside, stroll down the river to Shakespeare's Globe and Borough Market in one direction, or the South Bank in the other.

Cricket at The Oval

The ground where the Ashes were born in 1882, and where every great cricketer has played since Victorian times, the Kia Oval is a top international venue that attracts audiences from around the world, with the famous final Test match of the English season traditionally played here, as well as One Day and Twenty20 cricket.

NOTES

With SO Resi, you buy your own home in your own way. You start with a share that's right for you, then you can buy extra shares over time, so it's all manageable and suits your income.

You start by buying between 25% and 75% of your SO Resi home. That means your monthly mortgage payments and deposit are smaller than they would be if you bought your home outright. There are two other monthly payments for your SO Resi home. One is the SO Resi payment for the share of your home that ReSI Housing Ltd owns. The other is the service charge, which pays to look after the building you live in. There are also the usual other costs, like household utility bills. You can choose to buy a bigger share of your SO Resi home in the future, and even own 100%. The bigger the share you own, the lower your ReSI Housing Ltd payment will be.

We're here to help

Whatever your needs, we're on hand to help at every stage. First we'll help you understand all the costs and work out what's affordable for you. If you decide to go ahead, we'll be there to answer your questions. And in the future, we can help you with buying a bigger share of your home, or with selling up if it's time for a change.

You can sell your share at any time if you decide to move on.
