DESCRIPTION

Converted from a former malt house, the cottage has immense character with exposed beams and the original 'kiln'. The ground floor features a unique and well presented kitchen which includes the original brick kiln and separate dining area, as well as a delightful living room. On the first floor there is a double bedroom with a separate walk-in dressing room, and a bathroom complete with bath. The second floor has another good-size double bedroom and separate bathroom with shower unit. Additional built-in storage is also available. At the front of the cottage there is a small enclosed garden ideal for sitting out, and ample off-street parking for at least two cars.

SITUATION

Kiln Cottage enjoys a beautiful rural setting down a quiet country lane in the village of Eastcourt. The nearby village of Crudwell (just 1 mile west) has a newly opened farm shop as well as two highly rated dining venues, The Rectory Hotel and The Potting Shed pub. The village of Oaksey (just over 1 mile northeast) also has a well-regarded pub and a popular village shop.

There is an excellent range of shops and amenities available in Malmesbury (6 miles), Tetbury (6 miles) and Cirencester (10 miles) including Waitrose stores in both Malmesbury and Cirencester. There is also an excellent choice of local schools including popular primary schools in the nearby villages of Crudwell, Oaksey and Minety; secondary school options include Ofsted 'Outstanding' rated Malmesbury as well as various private education options.

The area offers good commuter access to regional centres including Swindon, Oxford, Cheltenham, Bath and Bristol. The M4 motorway (Junction 17) is about 10 miles away whilst a mainline rail service to London Paddington runs from Kemble Station (5 miles), scheduled to take about 75 minutes.
