The exterior has a generous driveway extending to the side offering off-road parking and a tidy lawned frontage. The setting is a major asset: the property sits just moments from the end of the cul-de-sac, where residents can enjoy direct access to the Biddulph Valley Walkway, a huge lifestyle advantage for dog walkers, families, and anyone who values green space connectivity.

Inside you are welcomed into a spacious hall leading to a bright open-plan lounge/diner that benefits from dual-aspect windows.

The kitchen is practical and functional as-is, yet it presents clear scope to create an open-plan dining kitchen, a strategic upgrade that would significantly enhance both value and usability. There's also a breakfast bar and useful pantry store.

Upstairs, the home offers three well-sized bedrooms, including a principal bedroom fitted with modern built-in wardrobes. The front aspect enjoys partial views across Biddulph Moor, adding a pleasant outlook. There is also a family bathroom with a white suite.

The rear garden is a generous, established plot, offering a secure family-friendly environment with ample potential for landscaping, entertaining spaces, or external storage solutions. It also enjoys a South facing aspect.

With excellent access to Biddulph town centre, schools, supermarkets, Halls Road recreational grounds and, crucially, Biddulph Valley Walk just yards away, this property offers a well balanced blend of lifestyle, convenience, and future value creation.
